Editorial

When all these shining leaves are filled,
How will the owner's heart be thrilled,
On every opening leaf to find
Some tribute of affection kind,
Some token, some memorial dear
Of each loved friend concentred here;
And when those friends are far away,
Still here their semblance to survey,
And mark the image of each mind
In living colors well-defined."

—Bohn

The Annual Staff has earnestly endeavored to give to Hyde Park one more real memory book to add to the series of "Aitchpes." May every Hyde Parker —athlete, musician, dramatist, or student—find in its pages "some memorial dear of each loved friend." It is through friendship alone that the Annual is successful. The beauty of paper and binding, the competent workmanship of the printer, engraver, and photographer, the subtle appeal of the drawings, and the tasteful arrangement of well-written articles attract the interest of the stranger. The Hyde Parker, however, is entirely satisfied only when he finds his friends in evidence. The Staff has therefore attempted to record the more personal side of school life and not merely to chronicle events.

The Annual of 1921 is essentially of and for Hyde Parkers, and lastly by Hyde Parkers. The ability of the Business and Editorial Staffs, the Sponsors, the Censors, and the Students to work in friendly unison made possible this Aitchpe.

First on the program is our little, chubby, capricious, cheerful child. He bears out the saying that all fat people are happy, for his smile is as expansive as his girth.

HENRIETTA ALEXANDER

CARLETON LLOYD BANKER
Shakespeare—University of Illinois
C. I. C., '20, '21; Discussion Club, '20; Boxing and Wrestling Club, '20.

FREDERICK E. BARTLETT
Scott—University of Illinois
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21.

Fred is one of the quiet type that does things. He's a regular wizard when it comes to anything scientific, though. Sorry to see you go, Fred.

C. I. C., '19, '20, '21; Sophomore Girls' Society, '18, '19; Junior Girls' Society, '19, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '20, '21.

Elizabeth, known as "Mlle's. little Secretary," always has a crowd around her seeking advice. Because of her high scholastic record, she is one of Hyde Park's finest girls. Whatever she sets out to do, she usually accomplishes.

JEANNE BIRKHOFF

Ray—University of Illinois

EDWARD BLAKE BLAIR, JR.

Senn—University of Wisconsin

C. I. C., '20, '21.

He has been here only a year, but Blake has shown himself a good Hyde Parker. We hope Wisconsin appreciates him as Hyde Park and Senn have.

C. I. C., '20, '21; Glee Club, '20, '21; Operetta, '20, '21; Senior Girls' Society, '20, '21; Girl Reserves, '20, '21.

Frances is a quiet little miss with a surprising strength of personality and intellect. Good proof of this is in the very decided way in which we miss her when she is absent.

C. I. C., '19, '20, '21; Dramatic Club, '19; Sigma Epsilon, '20, '21; French Club, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '21; Pythagorean Club, '21.

Lenore is that vivacious blonde who dances like a fairy, sings, and "ukes," and in addition has those hard-to-get S's on her report card. She's the kind of girl we're glad to have had at Hyde Park.

LUCILLE L. BOBB

Ray—University of Chicago

"Ed" comes from a famous family, and is somewhat musical himself. That he's a fine student is shown by the fact that he was in Sigma Epsilon and also on the Annual Staff. There aren't many around school who can boast of such a list of accomplishments or such a host of friends.

C. I. C., '20, '21; Junior Girls' Society, '19; Senior Girls' Society, '20, 21; Garden Club, '18, '19, '20, '21; Musical Club, '19.

Madeleine Mascha

Lucy Flower—University of Illinois
C. I. C., '20, '21; Junior Girls' Society, '19.

Capability is Madeleine's middle name. She certainly deserves credit for finding time to be so sweet and friendly, for if most of us had accomplished the surprising amount that Madeleine has, we would probably consider ourselves far above our class-mates. Beneath her reserve lies a sterling character.

Charles Derby McDargh

Derby's great claim to glory lies in the absolute confidence and ready backing of the June Class which, in choosing among all its most capable and most deserving fellows, named him as its leader. His poise and friendliness make him every inch a class president.

Rufus has real talent and a great deal of wit. He's responsible for the Art end of this Aitchpe. He has gained great prominence in his four years here, and is it any wonder people are proud to call him a friend?

Milly is some little girl! For subtle humor she puts Thackery to shame. Her coiffure is the latest thing, detachable at will, but not so the many friends she has made, who will stick to her even if she herself wants to detach them.

Edwin Maxwell Meyer

Forestville—Armour
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Sigma Epsilon, '21; Senior Euclidean Society, '19, '20; Pythagorean Club, '21; Annual Staff, '21.

As a co-worker on the Annual Staff, you've been a dandy fellow, Ed, and we're sorry not to have known you better, but others know and vouch for you as a fine fellow. It isn't necessary to wish you success.

Edward J. Meyers

Ethel M. Olson

Jamestown (New York) High School
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Senior Girls' Society, '20, '21.

Herbert Francis Parker

St. Ambrose School—Northwestern Dental College
C. I. C., '21; Boys Working Reserve, '18; Boxing and Wrestling Club, '20, '21; Class Basketball, Capt. '21; Lightweight Basketball, '21.

The fact that he has successfully completed four years of Latin shows Herbert's persistence. He's that way in basketball, too, but who doesn't know it? A list of his friends looks like a city directory. He is made of the right stuff. Watch where he will be ten years from now.

Frank W. Parr

Irving School, Dubuque, Iowa—University of Illinois

C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; French Club, '18, '19; Fur and Feather Club, '18, '19; Boxing and Wrestling Club, '20, '21.

Happy-go-lucky Johnny! To see him you wouldn't think he had ever had a care in the world. Maybe he hasn't, but we're inclined to think it's that extraordinary breezy spirit and optimistic way of looking at things that does the trick.

Evelyn Shirley Pooler

John Barry School, Philadelphia

Northwestern

C. I. C., '20, '21; French Club, '21; Senior Girls' Society, '20, '21.

George E. Proetz

This speaks for itself, for George is one of the most popular of Hyde Park fellows.

"Nick" is another one of the best athletes Hyde Park has ever turned out.. Every one of us is proud of his record, and proud of him. That spirit of fun and of good will mixed with loyalty to Hyde Park makes him a favorite with all.

Armand Roach

Burke—University of Missouri
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; French Club, '20, '21; Boxing and Wrestling Club, '20, '21.

We call him "Burlington." If you ever want to get the sympathy and friendship of Armand, ask him about the Burlington Road. It is his hobby. Withal he is a fine fellow.

Marion A. Rolfe

Frank John Roos

Notre Dame Prep. School—Notre Dame
C. I. C., Stamp and Coin Club; Fur and Feather Club; Boxing and Wrestling Club.

BEATRICE ROSENBERG

Burke—Business World
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20; Sigma Epsilon, '20, '21; Sophomore Girls' Society, '19; Senior Girls' Society, '21.

Jack doesn't go 'round hunting up friends and society any more than he goes 'round hunting up trouble. He's the best natured of fellows, but he has a mind of his own and exercises it to the best advantage.

REBELLA ROTHBAUM

Soldan High, St. Louis—Bryn Mawr
C. I. C., '21; Sigma Epsilon, '21; Spanish Club, '21; Senior Girls' Society, '21; Girl Reserves, '21.

Helen is one of the splendid people whose energy and enthusiasm have made Hyde Park what it is. The fact that she is Editor-in-chief of the Annual is proof of her success at Hyde Park; her evident ability to lead others and inspire them with confidence in her gives promise of a widespread future fame.

RICHARD RUBEL

Operetta, '19, '20, '21; Dramatic Club, '19, '20, '21, Vice-Pres. '20; Musical Club, Sec'y, '19; Glee Club, Vice-Pres. '20, Pres. '19, '21.

Lois has been well blessed by the gods in her graceful dancing, her birdlike voice, and her pretty face. She is one of those people who have the ability to make friends, for her sweetness attracts everyone and makes her one of the most popular girls in the school.

J. Vincent Ryan

Sexton—University of Illinois
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Boxing and Wrestling Club, '18, '19, '20, '21; Spanish Club, '18; Stamp and Coin Club, '21.

Looks are often deceiving, and Vincent looks quite innocent. Just get him alone, and see what he's like. However, he's a peach of a fellow, and to know is to like him.

Helen Adelyn Salisbury

Sexton—University of Illinois
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Spanish Club, '19, '20; Sophomore Girls' Society, '19; Junior Girls' Society, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '21.

Helen is one of our society belles, and a jolly good pal besides. Wherever she goes, sunshine and good cheer follow. Oh Helen, 'member "Johnnie had a li'l monkey climbing on a stick, mmmm."

Anne Samuels

Burke—University of Illinois
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Garden Club, '19; French Club, '19, '20; Spanish Club, '20, '21; Plutarch Club, '19; Sophomore Girls' Society, '19; Junior Girls' Society, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '21.

Pretty, graceful Jeanette is doubly talented. A musician of great ability, and a charming dancer, she certainly does not lack friends and admirers.

RUTH SANGER

Demure little Ruth has a surprising amount of tenacity and determination to carry her to success. Hyde Park has gained in having her here.

ELMER P. SCHAEFER

East High, Green Bay, Wis.
University of Chicago

Friendly, ambitious, obliging, and considerate, Elmer is sure to make a success of anything he undertakes. We wish him the best of luck in his future life—he deserves it!

WILLIAM C. SCHLACKS

Parkside—University of Illinois
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Spanish Club, '20, '21; Boxing and Wrestling Club, '19, '20.

Somehow, the nickname "Bill" always makes us think of a regular all-around fellow the kind that everybody likes, and here's an illustration. We'd rather have one Bill like this than a dozen Percivals and Reginalds. Our hearty wishes for success go with him.

WILLIAM S. SCHOENBERG

Willard—University of Pennsylvania
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Debating Club, '18, '19, '20, '21; Discussion Club, '19, '20, '21; Chess and Checker Club, '18, '19; Soccer, '19, '20; Track, '21.

Bill's all smiles and his pleasing manner is a familiar thing to all. If Hyde Park be thought of as a hive, then Bill is not a drone but a good steady worker, ready to do his bit.

BERENICE SCHROEDER

Holy Cross—University of Illinois
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Musical Club, '18, '19; Choral Society, '18, '19, '20; Spanish Club, '19, '20; Plutarch Club, '21; Sophomore Girls' Society, '19; Junior Girls' Society, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '21.

Talk about nice girls—Berenice heads the list. She can have fun at any time and under any circumstances, and isn't that the sort we like?

Frank Sefton

Kenwood
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; French Club, '18, '19; Discussion Club, '20, '21; Boxing and Wrestling Club, '20.

Frank has not had a phenomenal career at Hyde Park, but we must say that he is one of the group which gives their school the reputation of being among the foremost of the country in general quality of students. We predict a bright future for him.

Bernard K. Shapiro

Shakespeare—University of Chicago
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Sigma Epsilon, '19, '20, '21; Junior Euclidean Society, Sec'y, '20; Senior Euclidean Society, Vice-Pres. '21; Plutarch Club, '19, '20; Orchestra, '18, '19, '20, Pres. '21.

Will you ever forget the time "Bernie" played in the assembly? We expect to hear from him in future life as another Kreisler.

Dorothy E. Sider

Felsenthal—University of Illinois
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Spanish Club, '18; Choral Society, '19; Senior Girls' Society, '21.

Dot is the girl whom you just can't help liking. She is sincere, charming, and also capable, as is shown by the fact that she is making high school in three and one half years.

Jeanette Silvis

Central High, Minneapolis
C. I. C., '21; French Club, '21; Senior Girls' Society, '21.

Jeanette has made good in the short time she has been with us. She is the kind of girl who does not talk unless she has something to say. What a pity more of us don't take after her!

Lillian Simmons

Kenwood
C. I. C., '17, '18, '19, '20, '21; G. A. A., '17, '18; Art Club, '18, '19; Plutarch Club, '19, '20, '21; Sophomore Girls' Society, '18, '19; Junior Girls' Society, '19, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '20, '21; Weekly Staff, '20, '21; Girl Reserves, '19, '20; French Club, '20; Musical Club, '19; Press Club, '21; Girls' Weekly Staff, '21.

The winner of games is not the player, but the spirit of enthusiasm and faith that sends him through the lines. In spreading this spirit of enthusiasm and this faith, Lillian holds aloft the flaming torch. Without it, Hyde Park would be "just another school."

Ethel Marian Sims

Englewood—Bush Conservatory
C. I. C., '19, '20, '21; Plutarch Club, '20, '21; Senior Girls' Society, '21; Girl Reserves, '20, '21; Fur and Feather Club, '20, '21.

It has been truly said that a pedigree reveals the worth of a person to his school. Ethel's pedigree is representative.

Esther Sims

Shakespeare—University of Chicago
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Dramatic Club, '18, '19, '20, '21; Sophomore Girls' Society, '18, '19; Junior Girls' Society, '19, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '20, '21; French Club, '19, '20, '21; Sigma Epsilon, '19, '20, '21; Garden Club, '18; Annual Staff, '21.

The adorable little girl whom you always see flitting about in the corridors, is Esther, much admired and loved by her friends for her brightness and her winsomeness.

Helen Sims

Kenwood—Mt. Vernon Seminary
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Sophomore Girls' Society, '18, '19; Junior Girls' Society, '19, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '20, '21; French Club, '20, '21.

What would we all do without Helen to take care of us? The very fact that we love to tease her is merely our way of concealing our need, and perhaps our human way of showing that we appreciate at heart her true affection and staunch loyalty to those favored ones who are her friends.

Lillian Thelma Sims

Englewood—Bush Conservatory
C. I. C., '19, '20, '21; Junior Girls' Society, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '21; Girl Reserves, '19, '20, '21; Plutarch Club, '20, '21; French Club, '20; Fur and Feather Club, '20, '21.

Lily is a very quiet girl who accomplishes a great deal. She is certainly a shark at Latin, and we wish her as much luck as she has perseverance.

Charlotte K. Smith

Wadsworth—University of Illinois
C. I. C., '17, '18, '19, '20, '21; Cecelian Girls' Glee Club, '17; Art Club, '18; Junior Girls' Society, '19, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '20, '21.

Pretty, vivacious, and always well-dressed, Charlotte has left that fleeting impression which one always associates with a real Hyde Park girl.

MARION CORDNER SMITH

Horace Mann School, New York
Monticello Seminary
C. I. C., '19, '20; Junior Girls' Society, '19; Senior Girls' Society, '20; French Club, '19, '20; Titian Tribe, '20.

Seven for Marion, member of our famous Titian Tribe. She has a happy-go-lucky disposition that makes her popular and welcome wherever she goes.

ERIC SNOWDON

McCosh
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Boxing and Wrestling Club, '20, '21.

We bear witness to the fact that Eric can take a gas engine apart, mix the parts, and put them together with his eyes closed. His nickname may be "Silent," because it is sufficient for him to know that he knows, and not to say it.

LILLIAN SPEED

Harrison Tech.—Wilberforce

Lillian has been a good student during her two years with us, and we wish her the greatest success in the future.

ROBERTA SANFORD SPROUSE

Scott Chicago Normal School of Physical Education.

'18; Basketball, '20, '21; Indoor Baseball, '18, '19, '20, '21; Captainball, '18, '19, '20; Track, '19, '20, '21; Hiking, '18, '19; Tennis; '19, '20, '21; Weekly Staff, '20, '21.

Bobbie has made a name for herself at Hyde Park in more ways than one. Best known to us all as a star athlete, she has also made good royally in musical lines and on the Weekly Staff. No wonder we are proud of her.

FRANK M. SSKWOR

Cleveland High, St. Louis, Mo.
C. I. C., '20, '21; Spanish Club, '20.

He doesn't talk much, but then you know actions speak louder than words. His actions in Hyde Park have insured him a berth on the "Success Limited."

AUBREY HARRISON STARKE

Philadelphia, Pa.—University of Chicago
Plutarch Club, '20, '21; Story Scribblers' Society, '20, '21; Dramatic Club, '20, '21; French Club, '20, '21; Stamp and Coin Club, '20, '21; Sigma Epsilon, Pres. '21; Senior Dramatics, '21; Annual Staff, '21.

"I want to see my brothaw." Will that ever be forgotten? Aubrey has only been here a year, but he has gained more prominence than most people do in four. And that open pleasing nature is what did it. He was president of Sigma Epsilon which speaks for his scholastic ability, and his social success is a matter of common knowledge.

WALTER CLYDE STEFFA, JR.

Burke—University of Illinois
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Fur and Feather Club, '19; Discussion Club, '20; Boxing and Wrestling Club, '18, '19.

Walter is so full of life and fun that it's contagious. He knows how to work too; in fact, it's hard to find a more likeable fellow in every way. Don't forget to come back and visit us often, Walter.

HELEN STEIN

Fiske—University of Chicago
C. I. C., '21; Sophomore Girls' Society, '19; Junior Girls' Society, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '21; Sigma Epsilon, '19, '20, '21; Junior Euclidean Club, '20; Girl Reserves, '20, '21; Travel Club, '21; Plutarch Club, '19.

Helen manages most successfully to be a conscientious student and a supporter of Hyde Park's projects. She is also a talented violinist.

WOLFRAM J. STEIN

Burke—Vanderbilt
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Discussion Club, '19; Boxing and Wrestling Club, '20; Swimming, '19, '20; Track, '18; Class Basketball, '18; Tennis, '20.

"Blackie" has occasionally gotten into scrapes but he always gets out again, and who likes a perfect boy? Look at his pedigree, and you'll see that he's an athlete of no mean ability.

IRENE G. STEVENSON

Lake View High—University of Chicago
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Senior Euclidean Club, '19, '20, '21; Choral Society, '20, '21; Senior Girls' Society, '20, '21; Garden Club, '18, '19, '20, '21.

"Reney" is one of the best-natured girls in the class. Did you ever see her when those dark eyes weren't just twinkling with fun and mischief? She's a hard worker, too.

Sophie Strauss

Burke—Bishopthorpe Manor
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Musical Club, '18, '19; French Club, '19, '20, '21; Art Club, '19; Spanish Club, '19; Junior Girls' Society, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '21.

Sophie is our shining example of neatness. Her sweet smile, sociability, and good-nature have done much to make her popular.

Frank Stumpe

Bryn Mawr—University of Chicago
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Art Club, '19; Track, '18, '19, Capt. '20, '21; Athletic Board of Control, '18, '19, '20, '21; Manager Heavyweight Football, '20; Class Basketball, '18, '19; Discussion Club, '20; Boxing and Wrestling Club, '19, '20.

"Fastest high school miler of the middle west," the papers call him. No wonder his nickname is "Speed." But in spite of all his notable achievements, Frank is just the same admirable friendly chap he always has been—a real Hyde Parker we can never forget.

J. Howard Talmage

Wabash (Ind.) High—University of Illinois
C. I. C., '20, '21; Boxing and Wrestling Club, '21.

"Hop"—full of fun and good nature! This "Rose Bud" of Mlle. Favard's is one of the best liked fellows in the school.

W. Normand Tankersley

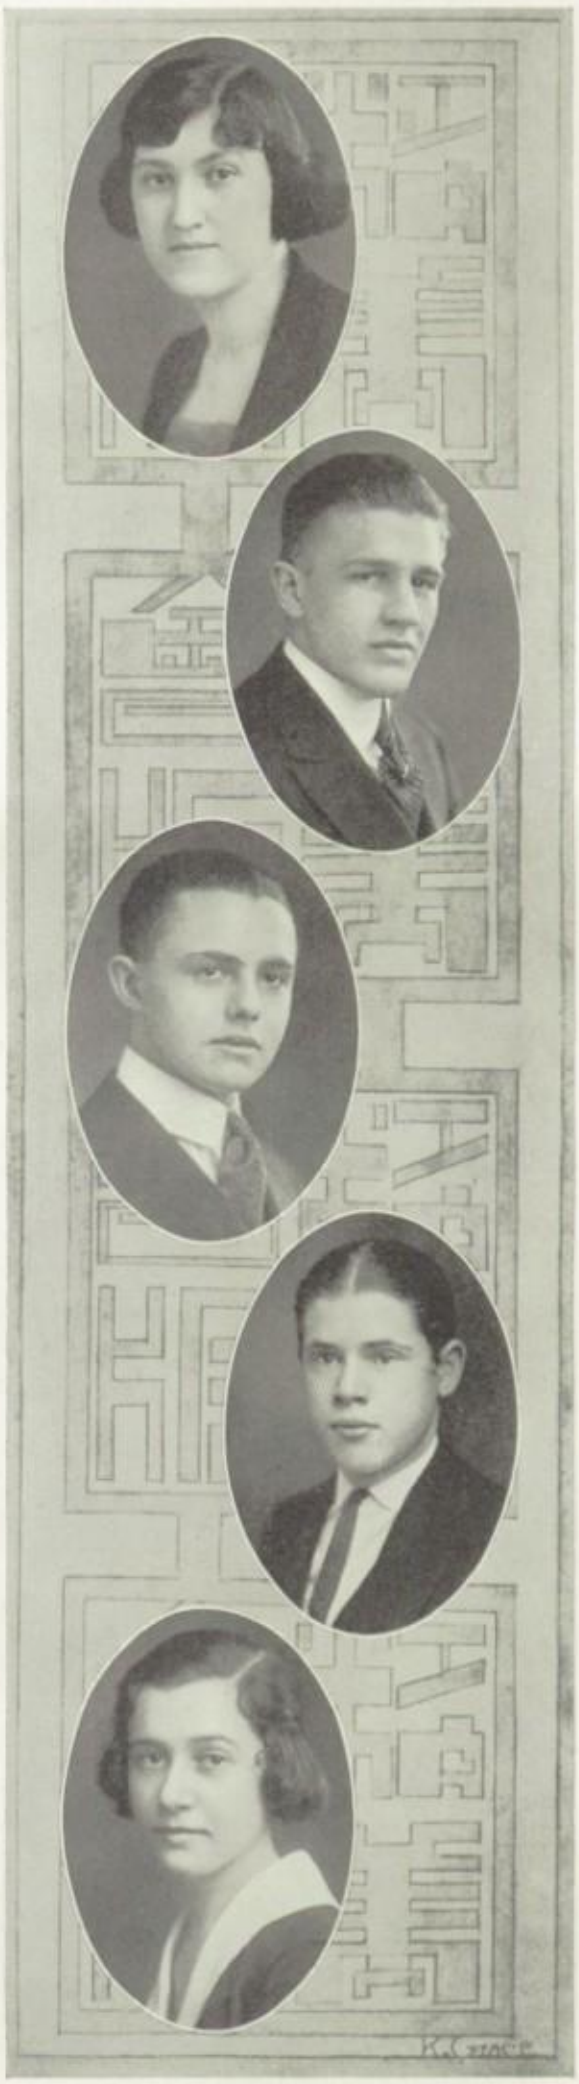
Kozminski—University of Chicago
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Fur and Feather Club, '18, '19; Stone Age Club, '18; Discussion Club, '18, '19, '20, '21.

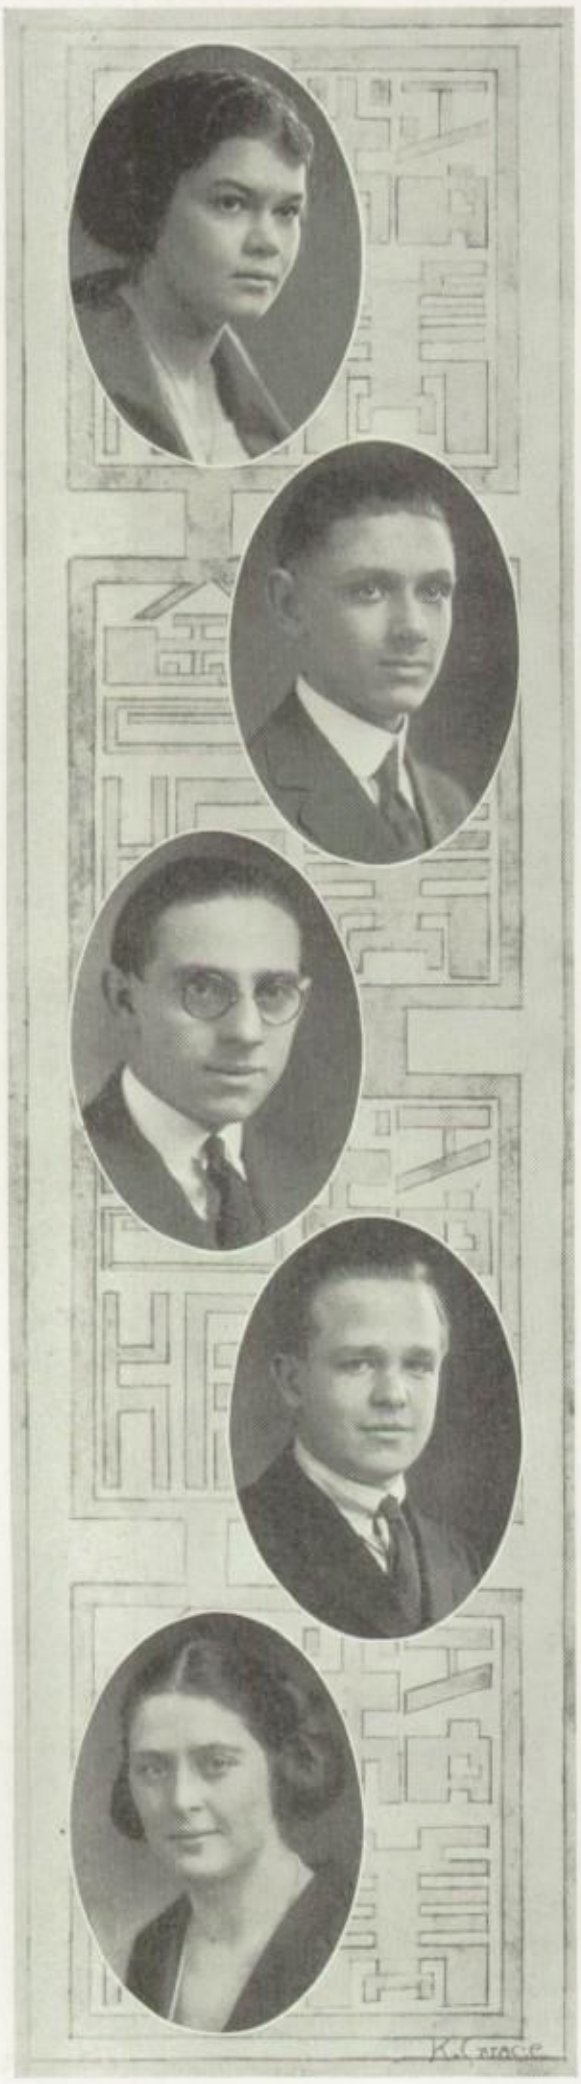
Whatever he sets out to do he does well, and that means a lot. If he takes hold of life that way, you know how he will turn out—on top.

Janet C. Thayer

Copernicus—University of Illinois
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Sigma Epsilon, '19, Pres. '20, Sec'y '21; Dramatic Club, '18, '19, '20, '21, Pres. '20; Girl Reserves, '20, Vice-Pres. '21; Sophomore Girls' Society, '18, '19; Junior Girls' Society, '19, Pres. '20; Senior Girls' Society, '20, '21, Sec'y '20; French Club, '19, '20; Story Scribblers' Society, '20; Weekly Staff, '20, '21; Girls' Weekly, '20, '21; Annual Staff, '21.

Janet is blessed with the winning irresponsibility of all geniuses; and it is that magnetic quality, even more than her well-known ability as an actress, that draws us along after her in whatever adventurous path she may choose to follow.





HELEN ALTA THOMPSON

Bryn Mawr—University of Illinois
C. I. C., '17, '18, '19, '20, '21; Fur and Feather Club, '18, '19; French Club, '19, '20, '21; Spanish Club, '20; Junior Euclidean Club, '18, '19; Senior Euclidean Club, '20, '21; Plutarch Club, '20, '21; Sophomore Girls' Society, '19; Junior Girls' Society, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '21.

Little Helen—oh, what a pal! She has made herself a real favorite by her lovable ways, and Hyde Park will surely miss her joyous laugh and adorable dimples.

CHARLES THORNE

Fairbury High—University of Chicago
Sigma Epsilon, '20, '21; Pythagorean Club, '20, '21, Pres. '20; Senior Euclidean Club, '19, Sec'y '20; Orchestra, '19, '20, '21; Band, '19, '20, '21.

Speaking of sharks, look at Charlie's pedigree. Rather mathematical, isn't it? And that isn't all, for you know he's one of the star trombonists of the band. He'll be heard from later on.

LESTER TISHLER

Sexton—University of Illinois
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Discussion Club, '19.

"Les" is a witty fellow with a good word for everyone. As a pal he can't be beat, and Hyde Park is losing a fine chap whom Illinois is gaining.

CHARLES TREADWELL

Interlaken—University of Chicago
C. I. C., '20, '21; Commissioned Officers' Club, '20, '21.

"Chuck" came from a boarding school, but it didn't seem to affect his ability to adapt himself to the life of a big public high school.

CECELIA VALLETTE

Scott—University of Chicago
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20; Stone Age Club, '18, '19; Senior Girls' Society, '20, '21.

Cecelia's pleasant disposition and unusually neat coiffure distinguish her from the majority. She is quiet, but her friends are ready to vouch for her sympathetic nature.

Vivian I. Van Ronkel

Forrestville—University of Chicago
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Sophomore Girls' Society, '19; Junior Girls' Society, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '21; Spanish Club, '21; Garden Club, '20.

V. D., our petite girl, whether studying hard or chatting gaily, is always pleasant. No wonder everyone likes her.

Cornelia P. Van Ryn Van Alkemade

Ray—Northwestern
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Glee Club, '21; Operetta, '21; Art Club, '20; Sophomore Girls' Society, '19; Junior Girls' Society, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '21.

Where have I heard that name before? Oh, yes, the girl with the lovely hair and merry smile. Corry will be greatly missed by her many classmates and friends.

Ruth Veasey

Sonis Champlin—University of Chicago
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Dramatic Club, '19, '20, '21; Sophomore Girls' Society, '19; Junior Girls' Society, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '21.

Ruth is probably the one girl in the class who has the fewest enemies and the most friends. Why do we love her? Look into her heavenly eyes and learn for yourself.

Margaret H. Viberts

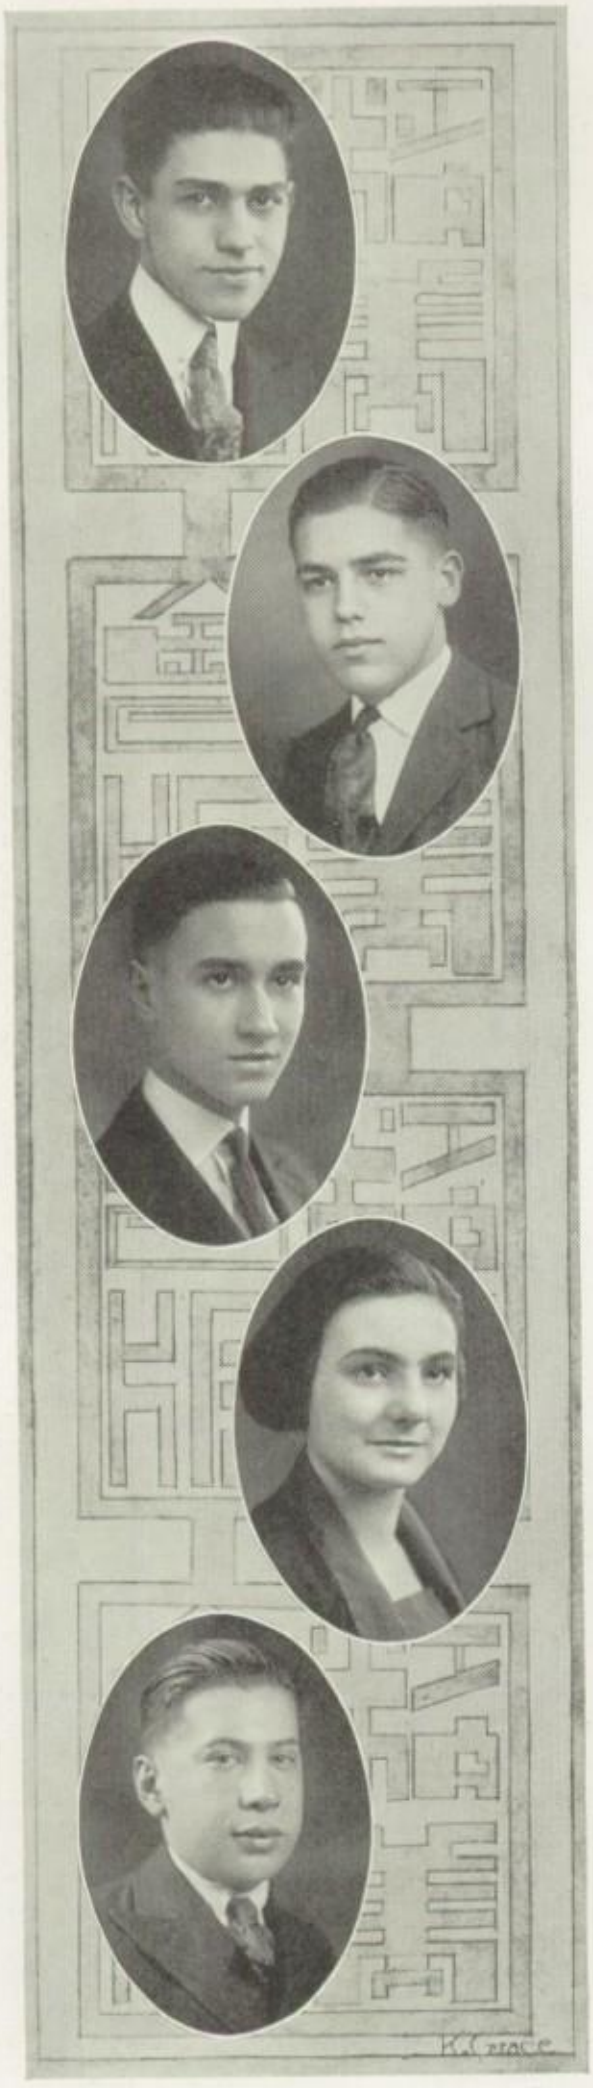
Kenwood—University of Chicago
C. I. C., '17, '18, '19, '20, '21; G. A. A., '17, '18; Titian Tribe, '20, '21; French Club, '20, '21; Senior Dramatics, '21; Sophomore Girls' Society, '18, '19; Junior Girls' Society, '19, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '20, '21; Vice-President of the June Class, 1921.

Here's to pretty Margo!—class vice-president and real Hyde Parker. She has perfected the fine art of combining charm and sincerity into one lovely personality, with loyalty as its keynote. Margo is the most interesting companion we know.

Louise Marian Wade

Sexton—University of Chicago
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Orchestra, '19, '20; Musical Club, '19, '20; Junior Girls' Society, '19, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '20, '21; Sigma Epsilon, '19, '20, '21; Garden Club, '19, '20, '21, Pres. '20; Senior Euclidean Club, '21.

"Weetsie," a girl full of charm, has the fine faculty of forgetting herself in her willingness to help others. And did you ever see her report card? You've missed a lot if you haven't.



ELBERT A. WAGNER

University of Chicago Elementary
University of Chicago
C. I. C., '20, '21; Dramatic Club, '20, '21; Sigma Epsilon, '20, '21, Vice-Pres. '20; Chess Club, '18, Treas. '19, Sec'y '20, Pres. '20, '21.

Elbert is Hyde Park's chess fiend. For him everything revolves about the chess world, but he seems to have time for school work—two years in Sigma Epsilon and the vice-presidency last semester prove that.

PAUL BRADBURY WALTER

Bryn Mawr—Dartmouth
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Dramatic Club, '18, '19, '20, '21, Treas. '20; Sigma Epsilon, '20, Treas. '21; French Club, '20, Treas. '21; Chess Club, '18, '19; Operetta Staff '19, '20; Annual Staff, '21; Chairman Senior Assembly Committee, '21; Senior Dramatics, '21.

When Sigma Epsilon trusted Paul with its large bank roll, it knew it was placing its money on a sure bet. Capable, reliable, and always ready to help put over any Hyde Park venture, he is a fellow who is equally well able to be a leader, or to be one of the great army of workers on whom all success finally depends.

KENNETH J. WARD

Glenville High, Cleveland, O.
University of Chicago

Kenneth is interested in everything from studying the stars to writing poetry. He carries off the laurels in everything; naturally he's a Sigma Epsilonian. Though quiet, he's full of fun.

If ever you feel your humor is not properly appreciated, come to Eleanor. Oh, that rippling laugh and those snappy eyes! Even if it isn't funny, she'll bubble over it—she can't help it. And there are lots of prople who come, too!

THEODORE WEBER

Forestville—University of Chicago
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Discussion Club, '19, '20, '21.

Ted is quiet and of a rather scientific turn of mind, and everyone knows that that combination usually produces a man who does things. Hyde Park is losing a good student when he goes.

Libby, a scholar, and athlete, and everybody's friend, has certainly been most active during her high-school life, and she deserves a better write-up than it is in our power to give.

Lonsdale Nelson West

University of Illinois
C. I. C., '20, '21; Discussion Club, '20, '21; Mandolin Club, '20.

Betty S. Williams

Oakland—Columbia University

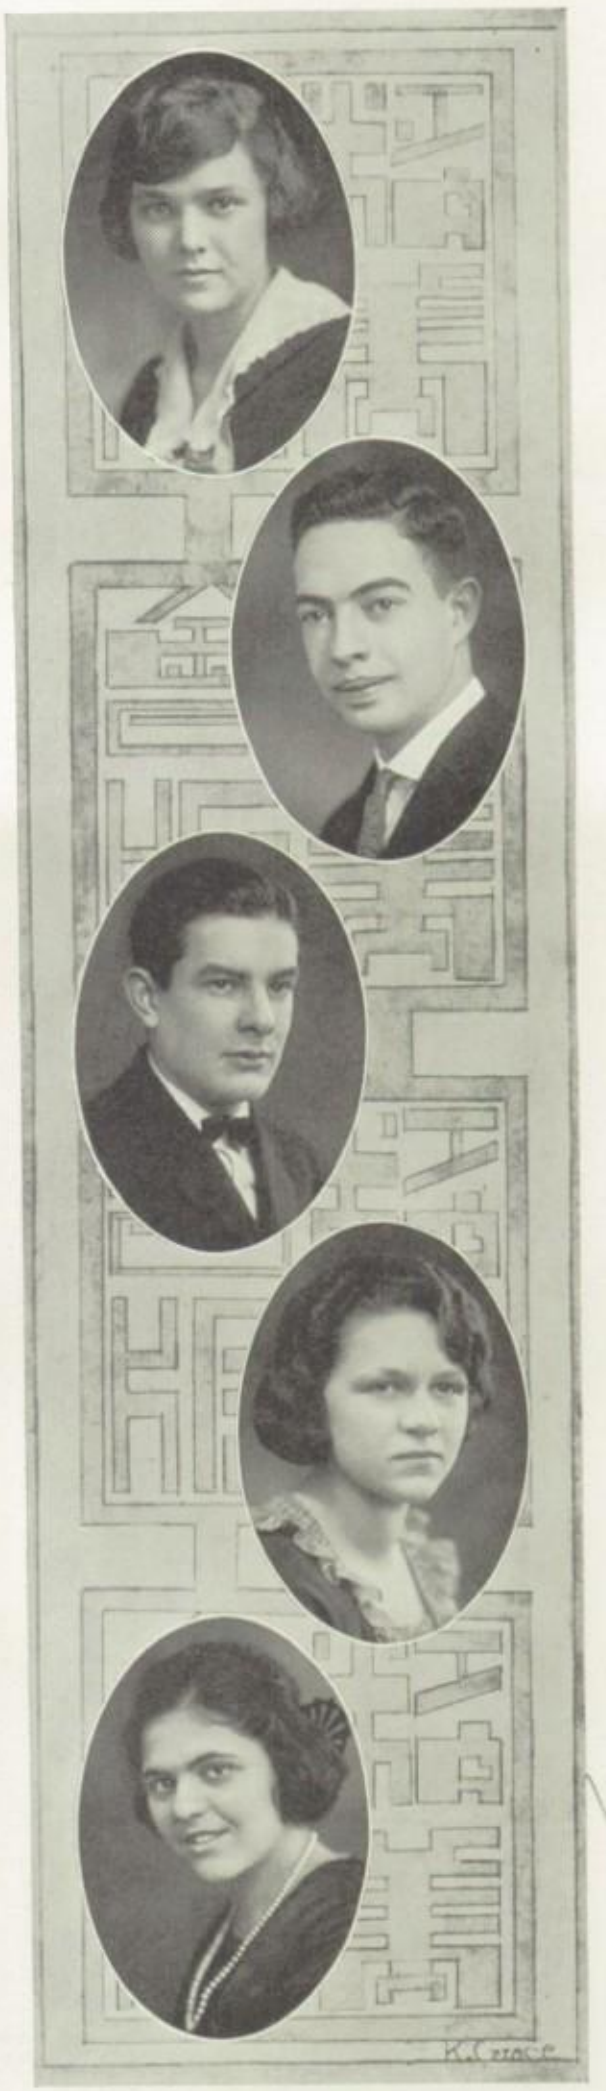
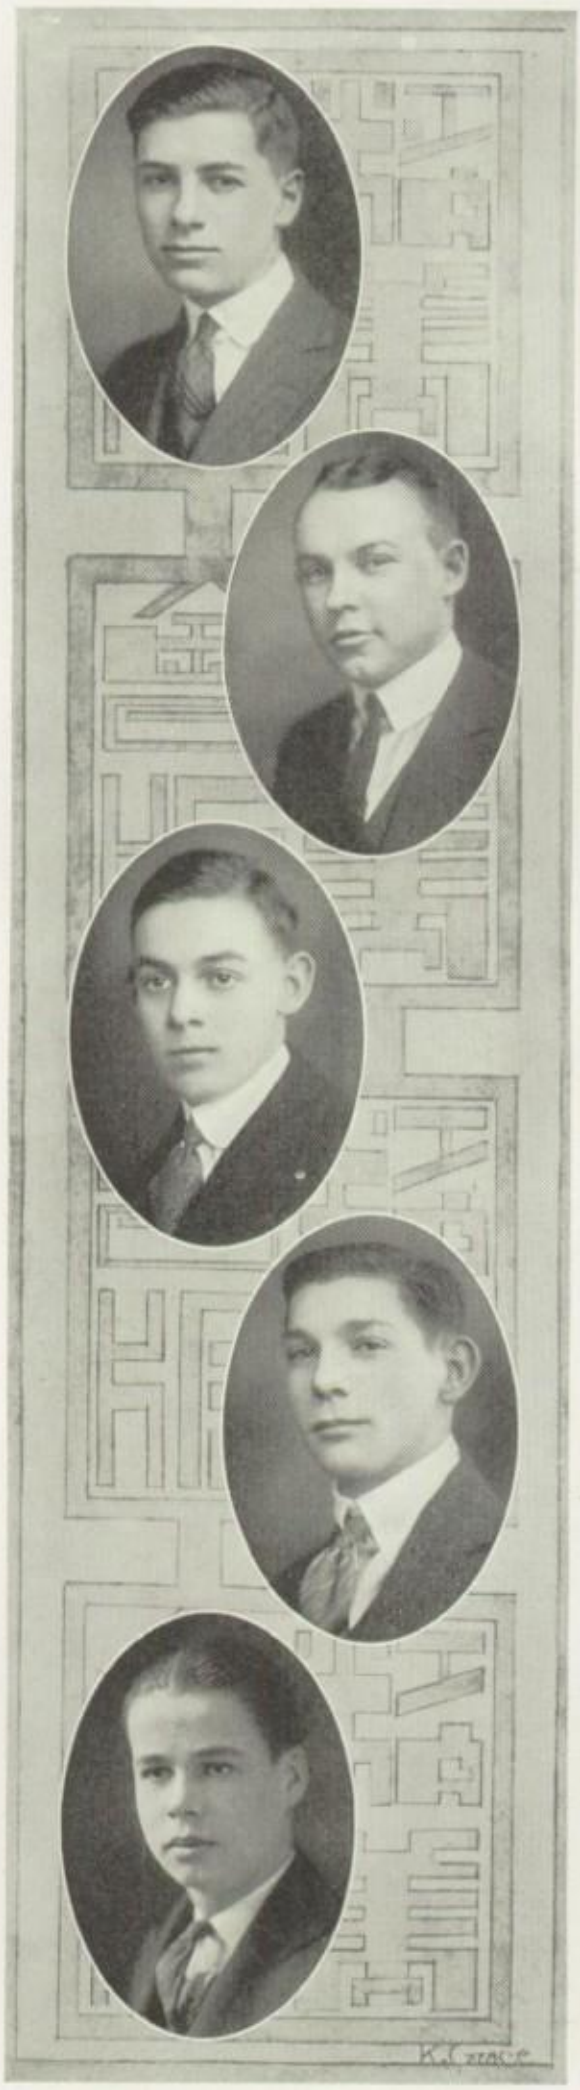
Everyone who has heard Betty play knows what a marvel she is at the piano; everyone who has been in her classes knows what a good student she is.





JAMES WILLIAMS

Wendell Phillips—University of Illinois
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Fur and Feather Club, '18, '19; Class Basketball, '18, '19; Baseball, '20.

ALAN WILSON

Washington—Northwestern Dental College
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Plutarch Club, '19; Band, '19, '20, '21.

Alan is rather fond of the ladies, but then—he is a dead one who isn't. Can you imagine him a dentist? We hardly can, but we're sure he'll be a good one. By the way, he sure can whistle.

C. I. C., '20, '21; Fur and Feather Club, '19; Spanish Club, '18; Class Basketball, '20, '21; Track, '21; Baseball, '21; Basketball, '21.

Carl may be small and rather quiet, but he's right there when it comes to boosting Hyde Park. He has the pep and "go" of a real athlete and the brains and energy of a 100% student.

CURTIS B. WOOLFOLK

"Curtie" didn't do much the first two years, but he has come to the front quickly in the last two, and his ready wit has made him many friends. He's a good sport, and we expect to see him a golf champion some day.

Austin Basil Wyrick

Forestville—University of Illinois
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Boxing and Wrestling Club, '21; Commissioned Officers' Club, '20, '21.

Here's a dandy fellow. You know how well he plays football and he does everything else accordingly, so it doesn't take a Math. shark to figure out that he's A1. And that ever present good nature—well, a "yea" for him. That expresses our feelings.

Theodore Zolla

Burke—University of Illinois
C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21; Musical Club, '19; Plutarch Club, '20, '21; Stamp and Coin Club, '20, '21; Class Basketball, '20; Lightweight Basketball, '21; Discussion Club, '20, '21.

Sidney Zurkov

Willard—University of Chicago

Although his name was always last, he has been among the foremost. He carries home piles of books, but you "never can tell." Anyway, he is a fellow whom everyone likes.

OFFICERS OF THE FEBRUARY CLASS—

THOMAS R. MULROY.....President
DOROTHY KAYE.....Vice-President
CONSTANCE HARLEY.....Secretary
WILLIAM STEPHENSON.....Treasurer

THE CLASS OF FEBRUARY, 1922—

February 1, 1922, will see us no longer esteemed Seniors, but proud Alumni. While we were in grammar school, our dream was to be a member of Hyde Park; while we were humiliated freshmen our desire was to become Sophomores so that we might seek revenge; while Sophomores our hope was to become Juniors and to assume their characteristic nonchalant attitude; while Juniors we sought to acquire the self-important air of the Senior; and now at the pinnacle of our desire we are still striving for the greatest of all, Alumni!

Nor has our school career been made up of dreaming of our ambitions. Although many of us had waked up to our opportunities in our first two years, by our Junior year we were all on our toes seeking a chance to help Hyde Park either athletically, socially, or scholastically.

Our Junior year was one of pleasant memories. Several wide-awake members of the class organized the Juniors for the first time since 1916. Officers were elected, and, at the first meeting of the class, at which six hundred were present, we decided to give a Junior Prom in honor of the graduating class. The Prom, which was held at the Kenwood Club, was a wonderful success, and it is hoped it will become a traditional affair.

We have attended Hyde Park during a transition period. First, we saw the forming of the honor club, Sigma Epsilon, which now everyone strives to make; second was the instituting of student government. At first there was some doubt as to whether it would be a success, but experience has proved it successful.

Members of our class were active in bringing about those two institutions and making them successful, and with a true heart we can say that the Class of 1922 did their best for Hyde Park!

—THOMAS R. MULROY, President

FRANCIS ABERNATHY

Ray

Marjorie H. Hedstrand

Paxton High School—Normal
Junior Girls' Society, '20, '21; C. I. C., '19, '20, '21.

"Red" is prominent on the football gridiron and an athlete of note, yet is quiet and masterful, so that the school can say, "Here is some fellow!"

ROBERT SHORT

Bryn Mawr—Dartmouth

Radio Club, '17, '18, '19, '20, '21; Junior Euclidean Pres., '20; C. I. C., '17, '18, '19, '20, '21; Boxing and Wrestling Club, '18, '19.

Joe is especially attractive when he is bedecked with his "natty, darby derby." Aside from that he is one of our well-liked fellows. He dances, studies, and smiles equally well.

MARGARET LOUISE SIMPSON

Willard—University of Chicago

Junior Girls' Society, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '21; Girls' Glee Club, '19, '20; Plutarch Club, '20, '21, Vice-Pres., '20, Pres., '21; Travel Club, Pres., '20; Art Club, '20; Dramatic Club, '20, '21; C. Gracious, what a long pedigree! This little combination of song-bird and actress has left no room for her write-up. She really doesn't need one, for her charming personality and pedigree tell the story.

ELLSWORTH SMITH

Shakespeare—University of Illinois

Chess and Checker Club, '20; C. I. C., '17, '18, '19, '20; Debating Club, '20.

"Li'l Pinky-pink!" He eats rusts right off the iron. That's the cause of his per petual and wholesome grin. That grin is his fortune.

Rosadel Stadeker

Willard—Academy of Fine Arts
Senior Girls' Society, '21; Garden Club, '18, '19; Dramatic Club, '19, '20; Girl Reserves, '20, '21.

"Full of nature nothing can tame,

Rosadel is a rare combination of excellent qualities. We wouldn't take "Brewster's Millions" for her.

Donna Elizabeth Stebbins

Scott—University of Chicago
Spanish Club, '18, '19, '20, '21; Girl Reserves, '20, '21; C. I. C., '18, '21; Sigma Epsilon, '21.

Elizabeth is a quiet girl who takes things as they come without a whimper. Not such such a bad policy, is it? She is not so slow when it comes to capturing high marks.

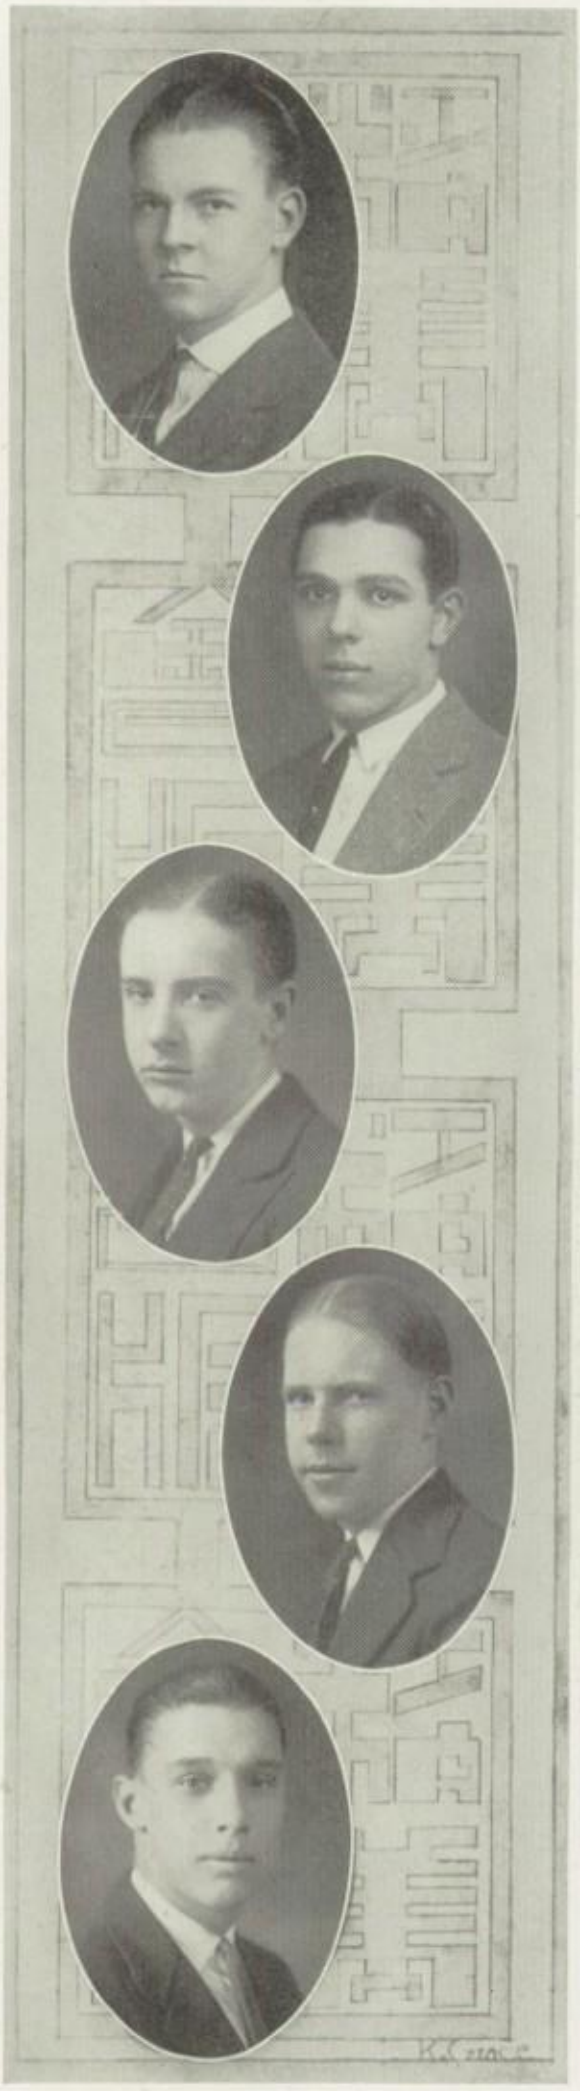
Rebecca Elizabeth Stephen

Buckingham High School, Philadelphia, Pa.
University of Chicago
Junior Girls' Society, '20; Senior Girls' Society, '21; C. I. C., '19.

Here's Elizabeth in our midst who comes from Quaker town. It didn't take her long to like Hyde Park, and didn't take us long to like Elizabeth. "Once a friend, always a friend" is her motto.



William A. F. Stephenson

Fiske—University of Illinois
Freshman Boys' Club, '18; Junior Commissioned Officers' Club, '18, '19; Discussion Club, '18, '19, Vice-President, '20; C. I. C., '18, '19, '20; Soccer, '20; Operetta, '20, '21; Treasurer '22 Class.

Bill, who has a hand in all school activities, is the sort of fellow who will fight till the end for something he has set his mind on. Just ask the Staff how long it took us to convince him he could not have more space for the Operetta.

Morton Stettauer

Carter Practice—University of Illinois

Now here is "Mort," one of Hyde Park's dashing cadets. He makes an attractive young R. O. T. C. captain especially with that "growth" on his lip he affects lately.

J. Clifford Strong

Senior Dramatics, '21; Operetta, '21; Discussion Club, '18, '19, '20, '21; C. I. C., '18, '19, '20, '21.

WILLIAM WOOD

Heavy weight Football, '20; Athletic Board of Control, '20.

Here's Bill Wood, our star punter and a mainstay of our football team. Once he kicked the ball so high it never came down. Ever since he's been content with a mere sixty-five yards or so.

Our most familiar vision of Frank is that of a gentleman seated on top of some scenery nailing some mountains and a few rivers or so onto the atmosphere. His art makes our plays realistic.

HYDE PARK 201! Opponents 134! That certainly sounds as if Hyde Park has had a prosperous season, and that is the case, too. The team was successful from the very first and consistently victorious throughout the entire year.

The Blue and White began with a practice tilt which was eventually lost 10 to 11. Marshall, one of the most powerful of the west side fives, came out on top. This game was the first chance the team had to show its worth under enemy fire, and it gave evidences of the smooth-working team it later became. Several changes in the line-up and style of play were made, with the resultant triumphs over Calumet and University High to the tune of 27 to 14 and 16 to 8 respectively.

With the men in fine fettle, the league season was opened auspiciously against Lindblom. The enemy fought stubbornly, but finally was forced to give way to Hyde Park 14 to 16. Tilden administered the first defeat, but brought Hyde Park a determination to win thereafter that was felt keenly by each member of the squad.

That tilt with the Purple was a glorious one to behold. Hyde Park scrapped from whistle to whistle with a courage that could bring only supremacy, and Englewood bowed humbly to Hyde Park's 13 to 8 win. Hyde Park next crushed Phillip's hopes with a 31 to 4 score, and shortly cut a 30 to 17 victory from Lindblom's conquest bag. Because of the previous victory scored over Hyde Park by Tilden, a battle-royal was predicted, and a fierce game it turned out to be. The five from Hyde Park acquired a 20 to 11 victory.

Englewood defeated Hyde Park 20 to 15 in the next to the last preliminary, but the 14 to 1 score registered in the Phillips game sent Hyde Park into the semi-finals with her blue and white banner flying.

Bowen, the southern section champion, was a barrier hard to surmount, but surmount it Hyde Park did with 19 points against Bowen's 8. As the Bowen win was chalked up, Englewood succeeded in overcoming Calumet. That brought the two rival schools together in perhaps the most exciting clash of the season. A great deal was at stake in this game and both teams played to the utmost of their ability. In the end Hyde Park dominated 18 to 11, and quickly began last-minute preparation for the city-championship game to be played against the northern section champion. Hyde Park versus Crane at Bartlett Gymnasium brought the two best teams in the city together. After a contest replete with thrills and sparkling plays, Hyde Park was forced to give in 8 to 20, and admit Crane's superiority.

During the season, the squad made trips to Elgin, Morgan Park, and Kalamazoo, Michigan. The team was entertained royally, and received much enjoyment from the out-of-town games.

Coach Cobelli merits a great deal of credit for the team's success, and too much gratitude cannot be shown him for his untiring efforts.

Football

SHORTLY after the opening of school, the call for light and heavyweight candidates was given. Hyde Park answered with her typical wholehearted response. A few days later the Board of Control issued the one team ruling, and the lightweight team was therefore disbanded. Several of the lightweights showed their spirit by electing to stick by the big team. Largely because of their action, Hyde Park had two full teams plus several extra substitutes during the entire season, and the excellent showing was very clearly due to the strong reserve team which was ever ready to scrimmage with the first eleven.

The Alumni game gave the team a chance to work against a strange eleven. The Alumni registered when Hallstrom picked up a fumble and ran for a touchdown, but Hyde Park tied the score with Captain Kile's ninety yard run thru the opponents' line.

The Blue and White opened the league season with a 19-0 victory over Austin. In the next game which was with Lane, Hyde Park was forced to present a badly battered team without its leader. There could be but one possible result—that of defeat. The crippled backfield could gain but little against Booker, who played practically Lane's whole line, and it was not able to knock down Lane's forward passes which worked for twenty points. Shortly afterwards, however, the game was forfeited to Hyde Park.

The following game with Englewood showed the team at its best. Hyde Park gained twelve first downs and completed five passes to Englewood's three first downs and one pass, but the game was lost on a weird kick returned by the Purple quarter who eluded all Blue and White tacklers. The highly reputed Englewood backfield met a stone wall when it hit Hyde Park's fast charging line, and it was extremely fortunate to win at all.

A muddy field held Hyde Park to a 6-0 victory over Harrison, but in the Waller game the backfield and line worked as one great machine which resulted in a 62-0 victory, a score that was not equalled by any Chicago team during the entire season.

Lindblom succumbed 28-0, Senn was put away to the tune of 14-10 after she lead 10-0 near the end of the third period, and Hyde Park beat Crane 14-0 in the final game of the season.

Baseball

WHEN the umpire called "Play ball" at the beginning of the 1921 season' Hyde Park was able to put a team upon the diamond equal to any Blue and White baseball team of recent years.

The results of the practice games were very much in favor of Hyde Park. Calumet's nine offered the first opposition, but effective pitching and timely hitting on the part of Hyde Park brought a 1-6 defeat upon her. Bowen was vanquished 5-4; Bloom lost 0-5; Loyola, one of the strong Catholic teams, fell 2-5; and Evanston bowed 4-5. The victory over Evanston High was a feather in H. P.'s cap to say the least, for that team overcame the city-champion, Lane, team by a safe margin earlier in the season.

The initial league combat was against Lindblom. After many close calls she was able to boast a 5-4 win. Englewood was the next opponent. The Purple pitcher was extremely wild, but Hyde Park batters could not hit when hits meant runs. The result was an Englewood victory of 7-1.

At the time this report went to press, the Englewood-Hyde Park conflict was the most recent one on the schedule.

All credit for whipping the team into shape goes to Nevin and Thomas, who gave valuable instruction to the players.

The squad was composed of the following: Captain Rogers, J. Horton, N. Horton, Mills, Connolly, Colosimo, Poffinberger, Hannaway, Duval, Larkin, Patterson, Solomon, Weber, Thomas, Johnson, and Manager Ebert.

Cone, LaBounty, Morrison, Bloom, Stephenson, Coach Patterson,
Chittenden, Weiss, Jouse, Gutman, Rice, Schoenberg, Andrews

Heavyweight Soccer

THE team of 1920 was fortunate in having such faithful veterans as Baum, Weiss, Gutman, Schoenberg, Rice, and Woodruff to start the season. A large number of recuits answered the call for men, and Coach Patterson soon moulded the team into fine shape. Of the practice games, Hyde Park won a large number and was keen to start the season.

The first league game was with Calumet, last years' champions. After a hard-fought tussle we beat them 1-0. Next we easily defeated Parker 4-1. Then came our ancient rival, Englewood, whom we fought to a standstill, but an adverse decision by the referee followed by a penalty kick lost us the game 1-0.

In the last game of the season we met Tilden. Our half-back, Morrison, was not able to play, and the game ended in a tie 1-1. The winner of this game was to play Englewood, but because of the tie the division championship went to Englewood.

We were generally accredited with having the best backfield in the city, and not one field goal was scored against us in the entire sesaon.

Emblems were awarded to Captain Baum, Andrews, Weiss, Rice, Morrison, Bridges, Schoenberg, Gutman, Bloom, Jouse, La Bounty, and Chittenden.

Brittain, Schoenberg, Webster, Stumpe, Yarnall, Caldwell, Coolidge, Dinsdale, Thomas.
Meyrick, Kopf, Kahler, Poffinberger, Danner, Andrews, Buyer

Track

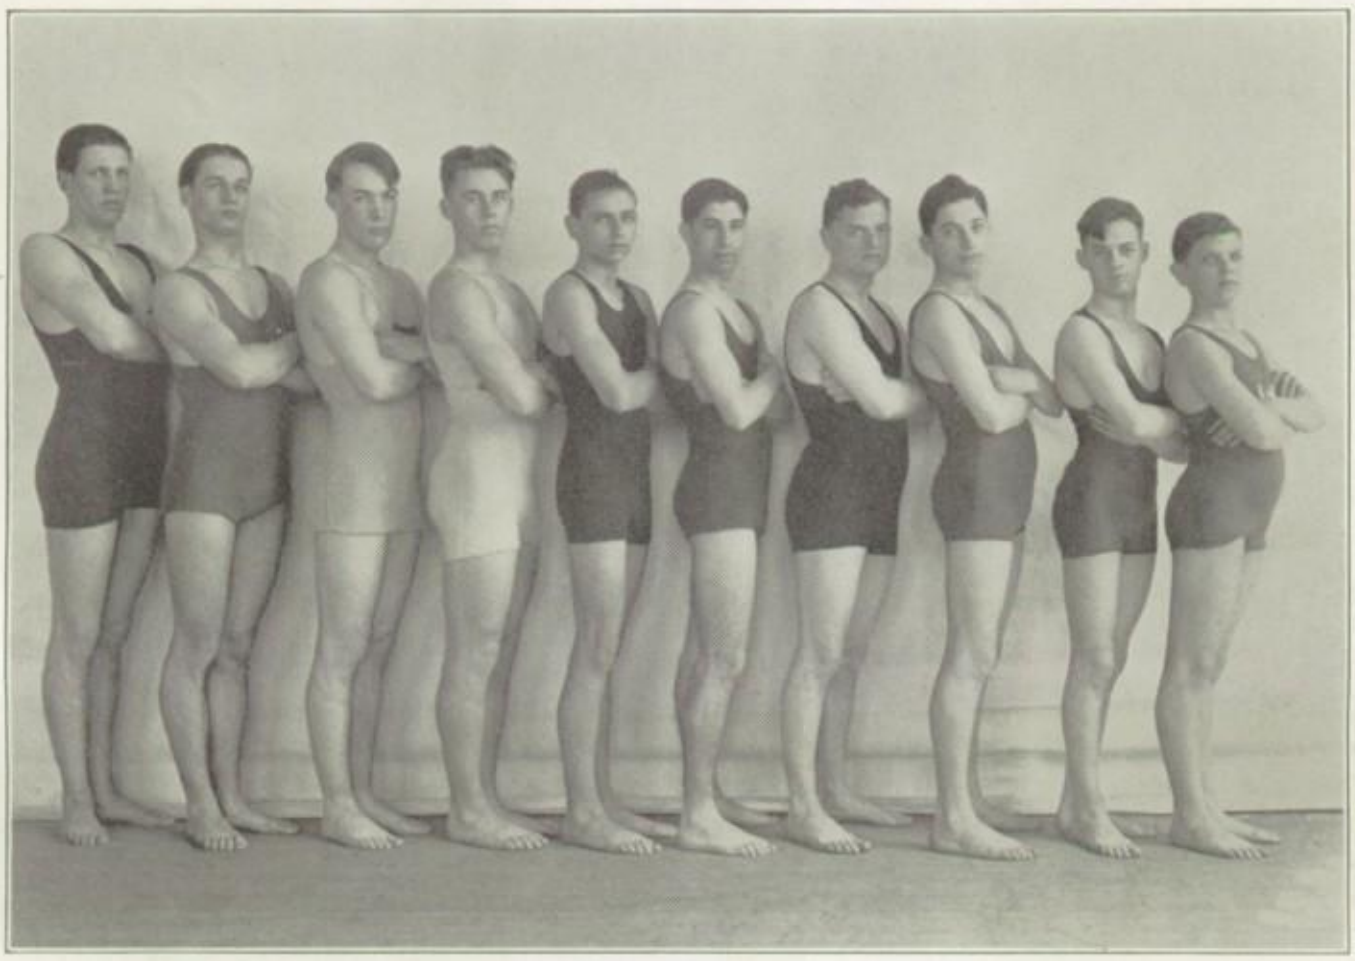
THE track season started with the 1st Regiment Armory meet. Against the strongest competition, Hyde Park won the meet by a comfortable margin.

The City Indoor Championships were next. Several of our best men were ineligible at this time, but by the stellar performances of Meyrick and Coolidge, we placed fifth.

On April 30, we journeyed to Culver, Indiana. We were there defeated by the strong, well-balanced Academy team. Meyrick and Strong gathered most of Hyde Park's points in this meet.

The other meets in which Hyde Park participated were:

May	7	Beloit Interscholastic
May	14	Millikin Interscholastic
June	4	Industrial High School, Hammond, Ind.
June	28	Chicago Interscholastic



Mountain, Meyrick, Hastings, Johnson, Goldsmith, Hirsch, Hoffman, Lassers, Nuddleman, Lewy

Swimming

HYDE PARK started the swimming season by winning second place with a score of 28 points in the meet at Parker, March 26. The team placed in nearly every event. Johnson and Hirsch each placed in three events.

On April 9, Hyde Park took fourth place in the championship meet of the Chicago Public High School League at the Y. M. C. A. College. Johnson starred again by placing first in the 20-yd. tired-swimmer carry and second in the 20-yd. head carry. Hirsch came to the front by taking first in the head carry and breaking the city record. His time was 0: 19 2-5.

Much credit is due Mr. Schmidhofer for his invaluable coaching and excellent advice.

The senior team was composed of Johnson (Captain), Jouse, Hirsch, Mountain, Dwen, Myrick, Hastings, Brin, and Hoffman (Manager).

Lewy, Stein, Lassers, Nuddleman, and Goldsmith made up the Junior Team.

Horwich, Colosimo, Aaron, Parker, Larkin, Davies, Dinsdale, Yarnall, Zolla, Hoag

Lightweight Basketball

Hyde Park's lightweight basketball team encountered Marshall in the initial practice game of the season and soon followed that conflict with preparatory games against Bowen, Calumet, and U. High.

The five from Lindblom conquered H. P. in the league opener and Tilden and Englewood bumped her with neatness and dispatch. The tilt with Wendell Phillip's Red and Black tossers brought forth a different result, however, which proved the marked superiority of the Hyde Parkers. Plying at the same pace Hyde Park forged to the front against Lindbloom, after the half showed H. P. 4, Lindblom 12, and secured a well-merited tie. The team continued its good work and extracted a hard-fought victory from Tilden. Hyde Park then stopped winning and was forced to acknowledge triumphs scored by Englewood and Phillips.

Considering the many necessary changes in the line-up and the stunting of progress they brought about, the team members should be given praise for the degree of success the team enjoyed.

Emblems were awarded to the following:

Capt. Davies, Zolla, Larkin, Horwich, Yarnall, Colosimo, Dinsdale, Hoag, Parker and Manager Aaron.

Tennis

LAST year Hyde Park led by the city high school champion, Ralph Rice, easily carried away the city and state honors. For the last three years, Rice has played on our championship team, and has shown that he is a man of great ability. Robert Weil, Berthus Gans, and Joseph Connolly were his mates. They followed the pace set by their captain, and Hyde Park came into the limelight once more.

Hyde Park won all its meets by the shut-out method, beating Wendell Phillips, Medill, Marshall, and Englewood. The team then journeyed to Culver to administer a trimming to the Academy boys. On May 20, we traveled to Urbana, Illinois, and played in the state tournament. In the finals of the singles, Rice and Weil, after wading thru a field of some sixty opponents, met each other. Rice showed himself the best man by defeating Weil 6-0, 6-1. Rice and Weil were successful in winning the doubles. Gans and Connolly met with a mishap in the fifth round of the doubles which spoiled our chances to win second place also.

This tournament was followed by the Chicago High School tournament early in June. Hyde Park defeated Calumet and Phillips in both doubles and singles. In the finals, Hyde Park won the titles for both singles and doubles.

This year prospects have been bright from the very start with both Rice and Gans back from last year's team. Hyde Park entered many dual meets as well as several big interscholastic meets.

Golf

IN the golf tournament of 1920, Miller, Bender, Baum, and Ritchie were in the semi-finals. Because of lack of a course, no interscholastic matches of any importance were played. Miller and Baum, however, were sent to the Illinois Interscholastic Golf Tournament where Miller took sceond and Baum fifth places.

At the time the Annual went to press the 1921 tournament had not been played off. Nevertheless, Coach Thomas had an excellent team. Chief among its members were Ritchie, Woolfolk, Kerr, and Patterson .With these men there is every reason to believe that the golf team will bring Hyde Park another championship.

The Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association was organized some five years ago for the purpose of getting together those girls who were interested in sports, and giving them a chance to play. It is the one club of its kind in the school, and its success is shown by the large number of girls enrolled and reporting for each game. The club has its own system for encouraging interest and competition. Under this system, the G. A. A., the highest emblem, was awarded to: Betty Ritchie, Mary Louise Less, Elizabeth Wells, and Florence Piepgras.

OFFICERS

Elizabeth Wells	President	Carolyn Goldstein

Ruby Burge	Secretary-Treasurer	Ruby Burge
Helen Robinson	Recording-Secretary	Betty Ritchie

To Miss Gardiner, our faculty advisor, we give our heartiest thanks for the splendid success she has made of the G. A. A. and for the time and effort she has spent in coaching the teams.

Basketball

The call for basketball candidates was answered by at least fifty girls. Both the Freshmen, who didn't know how to play, and the Seniors, who knew all about the game, came out for a "peppy" season of the girls' best sport. Interclass games were played off and the 4B Seniors won the championship, with the 3B Juniors running a close second.

The line-up for the championship game:

Seniors		Juniors
Roberta Sprouse	Left Forward	Isabel Gorgas
Florence Piepgras	Right Forward	J. Seckbach, F. Owen
Elizabeth Wells	Center	P. Allen, M. Walker
Mary Louise Less	Left Guard	Katherine Riefstahl
M. Kan, G. Perlman	Right Guard	Betty Ritchie

Games with the Alumnae, Bowen, and Lindblom are planned. And the Hyde Park Girls' Basketball Team hopes to be able to uphold the supremacy of the Blue and White, and win the honor of wearing Hyde Parks' letters.

Indoor Baseball

G. A. A. baseball is the game in which the Seniors fear the Freshmen. With Freshmen turning out in large numbers, and every Freshman being able to play, the Seniors have to work hard to defend their reputations. A large attendance always starts the spring baseball season, and, under Miss Gardiner's coaching, the teams soon round into playing form. The team winning is given the G. A. A. baseball emblem, and it is hoped that if the girls may play outside games, the school letter will be awarded.

Captain Basketball

Captain-basketball this year won a reputation as an exciting sport. Over sixty girls reported, and, since the rules were known to most of them, the games were full of life and pep. By placing only best players on the teams, class competition became close and exciting, and the girls on the winning team felt that they had really won their captainball emblems.

Swimming

In swimming, one of the most active sports in the Girls' Athletic Association, Hyde Park boasts two teams, the Junior and the Senior teams, for which there was enough good material, in spite of the stringent requirements. As evidence of our school team's ability we have the victories over Lindblom High School won in the two meets with that school. We hope to demonstrate further this ability in some proposed meets.

The swimmers for Hyde Park were:

Isabel Gorgas—crawl and back; "Sis" Piepgras—crawl, breast, and diving; Betty Ritchie—plunge, breast, and back; Erma Bregstone—breast and plunge; Miriam Sheon—diving; Angela Carr—diving.

Track

BOTH this and last years' Interclass Indoor Track was a success, as many girls turned out. Last year, 1920, there was only one division and four events, each girl being able to compete in only three.

Elizabeth Wells won three first places: the high jump—4′ 5″; the hundred yard dash in 12 seconds; and the standing broad jump—7′ 4″. Hannah Praxl won first place in the hurl ball, throwing it 67 feet. Faith Shepard placed second in the high jump; Carolyn Goldstein, second in the dash; and Hannah Praxl, second in the standing broad jump.

For these victories Elizabeth Wells and Hannah Praxl received emblems.

We thank Miss Gardiner for the time she devoted to coaching us for these events.

Senior Girls' Society

THIS year the Senior Girls' Society has certainly kept up its reputation of being the oldest, largest, and best girls' organization in the school. At the opening of the fall semester, a Freshman Frolic in the form of a baby party was given. There were four hundred Seniors and Freshmen present. Besides refreshments, prizes were given to the most babyish looking teachers Senior, or Freshman. A party, equally enjoyable, was given in the spring semester. On October twenty-ninth, a Hallowe'en Party—with doughnut, and cider and dance music to liven things up—was held in the big gym.

At the bazaar, the club had two booths artistically made in the form of a Christmas candy box and a Turkish harem. The usual semi-annual luncheons were held successfully—largely due to their clever managers and speakers. The St. Patrick's Dance, with its appropriate decorations and favors, was enjoyed by all who attended.

Junior Girls' Society

HERE'S to one of the liveliest clubs in the school! We have been prominent during the last year socially and in community work. Of course you remember the big dance we gave at the Kenwood Club in January and what a huge success it was. Yes, we did a great deal toward the Junior Prom, too. Everyone who went to the Christmas Bazaar remembers the attractive wind-mill, designed by that able artist, Fred Kruse. Our dainty Dutch maids won nearly $200 for their school on that night. We gave several baskets in the Christmas drive for the poor of the Burnside Settlement, and we also kept up our Milk Fund.

The Junior Girls' Society wishes to thank Miss Stuart for her interest and help, without which we would have been unable to attain such a splendid record.

Sophomore Girls' Club

ALTHOUGH the Sophomore Girls' Society was not started until late in the semester, all the activities undertaken by the girls have been great successes. The meetings were held every other Thursday, and several enjoyable programs were given.

At the recent bazaar, the club had a very attractive booth which took in one hundred and eleven dollars. During the busy Christmas weeks the girls helped fill baskets for the Burnside Settlement. The only social affair given during the semester was a luncheon, followed by a dance which was enjoyed by all the members. We are sure that the last dance was as much enjoyed as the luncheon.

The club owes a great part of its success to the unfailing efforts of Miss Stuart, Miss Hannan, Miss Dimocki and Miss Ohrenstein.

The Weekly

IT can truthfully be said that the past year has been the most successful one the Weekly has ever had. One or two changes were made in the staff, the most important being that only three executives were elected, the Editor-in-Chief, the Associate Editor, and the Business Manager. Many thanks are due Miss Biggs and Miss Brown who have so faithfully worked for the success of the Weekly. The entire staff also deserves much credit, and it is hoped that the staff next semester will be as successful as the present one.

Story Scribblers' Society

THE Story Scribblers' Society was organized two years ago by Judson Smith. The purpose of the club is to further the literary abilities of its members by the writing of stories. At each meeting several stories are read by the members, and after they have been read, they are criticized by the club. When all the stories have been read, they are then voted upon, and those receiving the highest number of votes are given to the Weekly for publication.

To become a member of this society it is necessary to write an original story and have it accepted by the club. At least three stories are due from each member every semester.

The Debating Club

THE Debating Club has had a very successful year. We had some interesting debates on the topics of the day and other questions of interest.

There have also been some humorous debates for the members who enjoy a good laugh.

Although our debating team, composed of David Resnick, Selma Aron, and Minnette Greenbaum, was defeated in our debate with the Current Topics Discussion Club, our inexperienced debators put a splendid fight against our seasoned opponents. Thus we have firmly upheld the standards of this club. The officers were:

Sigma Epsilon

BEHOLD us! Now, the rest of you Hyde Parkers, don't you wish you had succeeded in amassing those elusive twelve points necessary to become one of us? It certainly is worth while studying, now that Sigma Epsilon has become a permanent school organization. Those little square pins mean a great deal when honors such as positions on the Annual Staff are being considered.

This club of honorary scholarship was organized in the spring of 1919 with a membership of 86. The present membership is 256. Evidently we have succeeded in raising the standard of scholarship in the Hyde Park High School.

As far as we can ascertain, the idea of a high school honor club is practically original with Hyde Park, and two years ago Sigma Epsilon was the only organization of its kind in the United States. At the present time, however, there are a great many such societies which are patterned after ours, and some of which even bear its name. We have received letters from all parts of the country, asking for particulars regarding our organization. In several Texas cities, in St. Louis, Missouri, and in towns in Illinois, the plan has proved to be an especially overwhelming success.

The year 1920-1921 has been a very active one. If Sigma Epsilon were to claim as part of her honor the honor won by her illustrious members, she would be unequalled by any organization in the school. The majority of club officers, most of the Annual Staff, and a good part of the Weekly Staff are the sons and daughters of Sigma Epsilon.

And as an organization, she can be most proud of the hilarious "Mock Faculty Meeting" given for the benefit of the faculty last fall. Here Mr. Loomis sat and laughed at Mr. Loomis; and Mr. Loomis was something to laugh at. And who doesn't remember the Second Annual Faculty Vaudeville which was the hit of the year? The teachers not only proved most satisfactorily that they are human and full of fun, but a great many of them are really talented as well.

Then came the dance which was pronounced by all who were there to be the prettiest and most successful school dance of the year. Such a wonderful combination of fine music, excellent hall, and congenial crowd is seldom met with anywhere.

And last, but not least, have been those enjoyable parties from time to time at which we listened to the sage advice of some of our most popular teachers, followed by musical programs and refreshments. We know that next year's officers will pilot Sigma Epsilon through a list of accomplishments even longer than this.

The officers for the year were:

September-February		February-June
JANET C. THAYER	President	AUBREY H. STARKE
ELBERT WAGNER	Vice-President	BETTY BOYLE
KATHRYN KAHN	Secretary	JANET C. THAYER

Mathematics Societies

HYDE PARK has three honor mathematic societies; the Junior Euclidean, the Senior Euclidean, and the Pythagorean Club.

The requirements for membership in the Junior Euclidean Club are at least three semesters of mathematics with an average of E.

Entrance into the Senior Euclidean necessitates four semesters of mathematics with E. and S. in each.

The requirements for the Pythagorean Club are the most exacting with the result that only those taking higher mathematics can become members. Six semesters with at least four grades of S. and two of E. must have been accomplished. There are at present six members: Helen Cory, Lonsdale West, Edwin Meyer, Muriel Denoyer, Charles Thorne, and Richard Rubel.

The following are the officers:

Junior Euclidean

NORMAN FRIEHLING	President
MAURICE ROSENTHAL	Vice-President
BRITAIN ROTHROCK	Secretary-Treasurer

Senior Euclidean

BERNARD SHAPIRO	President
CARL GODE	Vice-President
MARY FOSTER	Secretary
WILLIAM GOODMAN	Treasurer

The French Club

DURING the past year, we have had many very interesting meetings, and have been entertained delightfully by the programmes. At each meeting we sang, played games, and many of our members took part in the charades which were given. At the Christmas bazaar our booth, a French cottage, was one of the most attractive and successful there. The club is caring for a little French orphan living in the southern part of France, and who is now four years old. We endeavor to create a French atmosphere in the school through the French Club, and we are told that we have succeeded.

We wish to express our gratitude to Mlle. Favard, Mlle. Shipman, Mlle. Johnson, and Mme. Lockwood for their faithful and untiring efforts to make the French Club a success.

Spanish Club

THE purpose of the Spanish Club is to enable its members to speak Spanish more fluently. This year the club has been reorganized, and now engages in many social activities as well as activities for educational purposes.

During the semester the club members participated in the Bazaar that took place on December 9, 1920. The Spanish booth was a Moorish archway. The co-operation of the Spanish classes enabled the Spanish booth to realize a larger sum of money than any other booth at the Bazaar, the total sum being nearly $220.

At Christmas time, the club sent fifty-four dollars in answer to the appeal which was made to help the Burnside Settlement.

A membership campaign was begun by a party which was given in the large gymnasium. This proved to be a great success.

At Easter time, when a call was made for baskets to be sent to the wounded and sick soldiers, the Spanish students responded by donating twenty baskets.

Many thanks are due to the sponsors of the club, Miss Messelheiser, Miss Peede, Mrs. Flores, and Miss Moore.
The officers of the club were:

HELEN ROTHROCK	President	ANNA KATHERINE DOUGLAS
ANNA KATHERINE DOUGLAS	Vice-President	KATHRYN KAHN
HERBERT JONES	Secretary	BEULAH ROWLAND
KATHRYN MATHIESEN	Treasurer	BRADLY DAVIES

The Art Club

THE Art Club had a rather tardy start in the semester. In spite of this fact, the members met with such enthusiastic co-operation, that now the club looks down the sunny vista of a brilliant future. Although the members are not masters, they are budding artists who come to every meeting ready to work, heart and soul, for the good of the club. Besides taking trips to various places, sketching and studying, the club has done other things. The members came forward eagerly when the call was made at Christmas for baskets for the children at the Burnside Settlement. Under the excellent sponsorship of Miss Bigelow, the members have greatly enjoyed the activities of the club this year.

The Plutarch Club

THE Plutarch Club has certainly lived up to its motto of "something different." The theatre party to "Abraham Lincoln" at the Blackstone, the speeches made to the club by prominent people, the trip to Ida Noyes Hall, and the Egyptian booth at the bazaar were all greatly enjoyed and appreciated. A never-to-be-forgotten assembly, at which Dr. W. A. Colledge, one of Stanley's companions in unexplored lands, spoke to us about romance and adventure in South Africa, was followed by "something different"—the big Plutarch Club Masquerade Ball. Everyone came to the dance in historical costume; a prize was awarded to the most correctly and attractively dressed couple, and the club obtained a great deal of notoriety thru this, the most successful and unique dance of the season.

Under the able sponsorship of Mrs. Hanson, the club has proved to be one of the most popular in the school.

Garden Club

THE Garden Club, a young and ever-growing plant, has been thriving vigorously this year. Our membership, which is steadily increasing, has been properly nourished by a practical corn talk given by Mr. Miller, and its thirst has been fully quenched by our delightful tea parties. Much beauty has been added to this plant by the stereoptican flower lecture given by Mr. Whitney.

Our annual beach party was an event to which all members looked forward with eagerness. Although the chief aim of the Garden Club is not the promotion of social life, nevertheless our social needs are sufficiently provided for.

Fur and Feather Club

THE Fur and Feather Club has been very active during the past year. Popular lectures were given at many of the meetings, which proved to be very interesting. On several occasions some of the members read to the club from "Roosevelt's Travels in Africa," a very interesting book. The club was also active socially. The Hallowe'en Party was enjoyed by all, and the annual dance was a huge success. Great credit is due our sponsor, Mrs. Young.

The Dramatic Club

THE Dramatic Club has just completed one of its most successful years. Several clever plays were given, including "Spreading the News" by Lady Gregory, and "A Box of Monkeys" by Grace Furniss. The first of these was given for the Parent-Teachers' Association and the latter for the Bazaar. The others were given at assemblies. A design for our pins was decided upon and orders taken. The club also gave a St. Patrick's dance, which everyone remembers was so successful, at Rosalie Hall.

Chess Club

ALTHOUGH the Chess Club has been in existence but three semesters, it is now recognized as one of the most active clubs in the school. The fact that the club started out with but eight members and now has an enrollment of over fifty members will enable one to judge the standing of the club by its growth.

Every year the club puts out a team. This year the Chess team won the City Championship and then defeated New Trier for the County Championship. The team's record is as follows:

Hyde Park 6	0 Faculty	Hyde Park 4	1 Austin
Hyde Park 3.5	4.5 New Trier	Hyde Park 4	1 Austin
Hyde Park 7	1 New Trier	Hyde Park 3.5	1.5 Harrison

Discussion Club

SIXTEEN years ago Mr. Smith founded the Discussion Club. This club was formed for the boys, to give them help and advice in combating the problems that confront a high school boy.

The present club meets every Wednesday at the Hyde Park Y. M. C. A. There we have supper and our heart-to-heart talks. Such speakers as Dr. Winfield Scott, Judge Landis, F. C. Crosby, and Glenn Adams, are secured to speak at the gathering. On the other nights the members speak on subjects such as School Spirit, Popularity, Bluff, Relations between Father and Son, and like topics.

Some of the interesting diversion nights include Faculty Night, Vaudeville Night, and Fathers' and Sons' Banquet. Two vaudeville shows were given this year, the second one being reinforced by Elmer Deger, semi-professional ventriloquist. The Fathers' and Sons' Banquet was a fairly large affair.

We had two leaders this year, due to the fact that Brother Smith had other appointments for Wednesday evenings. Mr. Van Hise ably acted as leader. All of the officers should be congratulated on the way they piloted the ship through the storms and calms of the deep sea and brought it safely back to port. The officers wish to thank the members for their loyal support and hope to see the next Discussion Club a larger, better, and more active club than ever before.

Girl Reserves

YOU really don't know how much work girls, busy ones too, can do and are willing to do for others—until you look into the ranks of the Girl Reserves. Whether it is the cry of the kiddies for milk, the call for toys and games at Christmas time, or the holiday surprises for the soldiers, every single one of our members is right there.

The rewards for cheerful, sincere work are many: companionship at the backward party, friendliness at the famous Millhurst Camp, and happiness at each peppy meeting.

The Stamp and Coin Club

THE Stamp and Coin Club has fast become one of Hyde Park's largest and livest clubs. Last semester we launched a membership campaign which netted us over fifty members. The purpose of the club is to promote an interest in philately by buying, selling, and bartering of stamps and coins among its members. We have an interesting program at each meeting. Once or twice each month some well-known authority on stamps lectures to us. Any new member is gladly welcomed to our ever-increasing fold, whether he be a lowly Freshman or a dignified Senior.

At the bazaar almost ten dollars' worth of stamps and coins was sold at our booth. When a collection was taken for the Burnside Settlement, our club contributed almost five dollars to this cause.

The Travel Club

THE Travel Club was organized only last fall, but it promises to be one of the liveliest and most successful clubs at school. Its purpose is to promote an interest in travel.

Many interesting meetings were held during the semester. Mrs. White, the mother of one of our best members, gave an illustrated talk on Shakespeare's part of England; Mrs. Lockwood spoke to us on her recent trip to Europe and showed us many beautiful souvenirs. Then there was our dance, given in the big gym, to which the whole school was invited. Our booth at the bazaar was one of the most attractive and successful ones there.

The success of the club is due largely to the untiring efforts of our sponsor, Miss Royston. The members wish to take this opportunity to express their thanks to her.

The Student Council

THE Student Council is an innovation at Hyde Park, being organized for the first time this semester. Broadly speaking, the aim of this council is to promote school spirit, to foster good sportsmanship, to establish traditions of honor worthy of Hyde Park, and generally to supervise the student's interests. It supervises the policy of athletics and awards emblems to those deserving them. The council is publishing a pamphlet containing general information about the school, such as a plan of the building, school songs and yells, Hyde Park traditions, and a schedule of dates and requirements concerning posting of failure notices, grades for athletics and report cards. This publication should be on sale in the Fall and kept by the student as a guide during his stay at Hyde Park. An assembly, under the leadership of the Student Council, was held as a means to promote school spirit.

What the benefits of this organization are to be, will depend upon future Hyde Parkers. Come on, Hyde Park, let's go!

Commissioned Officers' Club

THE Commissioned Officers' Club of Hyde Park might well be compared to the Congress of the United States, for the functions of that legislative body, relative to the United States, are similar to those of the Officers' Club, relative to the Hyde Park unit.

Throughout the year the commissioned officers met weekly to take up military matters. The members were able to hear each other's ideas and to act upon suggestions offered. The officers took charge of recommendations for promotions and thus brought the officer personel up to the necessary strength.

Considering everything as a whole, the club proved instructive, interesting, and very beneficial to its members and to the entire corps.

Musical Club

THE Hyde Park Musical Club has finished its record year. We have entertained others as well as ourselves. During the second semester we entertained the entire school with an assembly given by the Bush Conservatory. The program given by members of the faculty was a big success and was enjoyed by all. A great many of our members have contributed numbers on the programs of the various assemblies and have proved their ability to the school. The club has also been benefited by the leadership of Mr. Robinson, whose interest in the club has made it Hyde Park's most influential musical club. The club is noted for the galaxy of musical stars among its members.
The officers for the two semesters were:

President.....FLORENCE MCHIE
Vice-President.....ADOLPH MOWSCHINE
Secretary.....DOROTHY KITTLE
Treasurer.....CHARLES SCHOFIELD

Choral Society

THE Choral Society is just nearing the completion of one of its most successful years. The club's personnel is made up from the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs, and also from a very select chorus, chosen by careful try-outs. The club's one big task of the year is to form the nucleus for the opera chorus. In past years the club has put on the opera with the finish and refinement of a professional chorus.

During the Christmas assembly, the Choral Society sang three well-known carols and closed with the great "Pilgrim's Chorus" from Tannhauser.

The Choral Society has not the usual number of officers that belong to a club because there is no definite need. A great deal of credit is due Miss Margaret Kan, however, for she acted as the secretary and took the attendance. Donald Marye and Douglas Nicholson, librarians, were faithful all year, and the club gives them a vote of thanks.

Boy's Glee Club

THE Glee Club last year was one of the best in the history of the school. The voices were the best in the school, and they were brought to a degree of excellence that, by the able directing of Mr. Robinson, spread its fame even outside of school.

The school was entertained several times at assemblies; the warmth of applause that the school gave shows the high place the club holds in the pupils' hearts. They also sang several humorous selections for the vaudeville of the Discussion Club, which were greatly appreciated.

The fellows took the intricate parts of the operetta chorus and were a big factor in making it the success it was. The solo parts were filled by club members. Their singing was a very big feature of the operetta. A vote of thanks is due Mr. Robinson who very generously devoted a great deal of time and patience to the boys.

Girls' Glee Club

THE Girls' Glee Club has worked hard this year although it has not been very prominent. The club sang several times in assemblies, and also took a trip to the Juvenile Detention Home where they gave a very good program. They proudly claim among their members the girls chosen for the leading parts in the operetta.

Mandolin Club

WE will all agree that the members of the Mandolin Club have had a very enjoyable and successful year together. Our meetings, socials, and entertainments have not been held in the school entirely but have also been enjoyed in the homes of the members.

A very charming string quartet was organized, which played at several entertainments and dances. This "crack" quartet was composed of Groendyke and Rosengrant playing first banjo and mandolin, Anderson and Calkins playing second banjo and mandolin, and the "whizz", Lillie, at the piano.

The officers have contributed greatly to the success and maintenance of the organization. We sincerely believe that this has been one of the most, if not THE most, successful year the Mandolin Club has ever experienced.

Senior Dramatics

The Senior Class this year presented "What Happened to Jones," a play in three acts by George Broadhurst. The various characters of the comedy were portrayed very well by the cast. Many people have declared that a Hyde Park class has never put forth a better production.

The Mikado

THE Mikado, though the most difficult opera this school has ever attempted, was by far the most successful, largely due to the efforts of Mr. Robinson and Miss Guller.

The beautiful dancing and singing of Lois Russell, and the interpretation and vocal work of Charles Scofield were thoroughly appreciated by their audience. Dorothy Kittle and James O'Hagan did fine work in their roles, while Richard Carr as "Ko-Ko" was exceedingly amusing. Valentine Sherman exhibited a baritone voice of natural beauty, mellowness, and power. LaBounty and Basset were excellent, and all the duets, trios, and quartettes did well. An unusually large chorus completed the charm and beauty of a Japanese Court.

Yum-Yum, the ward of Ko-Ko, and Nanki-Poo, the son of the Emperor in disguise as a wandering minstrel, meet and fall in love with each other. Their plans for marriage are interrupted by the elderly and designing Katisha, and Nanki-Poo is almost executed before his identity is revealed. Ko-Ko, the Lord High Executioner, has a wonderful time executing everybody in sight and finally is placed in a position where he must execute himself. His only path of escape is through marriage with Katisha, and he almost prefers death. However, there is a happy ending with Yum-Yum and Nanki-Poo united.

Too much credit cannot be given to the Executive Staff, through whose untiring efforts success was possible. Great credit is due to Kruse and Bucholz for the scenery, and to Stephenson for his able business management.

The Bazaar

THE bazaar this year was held during the afternoon and evening of Thursday, December 9. It was the biggest event of the year, and its wonderful success was due in part, no doubt, to the fact that the proceeds were to buy a bronze tablet in memory of the thirty-eight Hyde Parkers who died in the service during the War. The school as a whole responded well to the repeated calls for help for various things. There were, in all, thirteen booths filled with good things of all kinds. The main lobby was occupied by three booths, and the other booths were scattered over the rest of the first floor. Practically everything was sold, the rest being auctioned off at the end of the bazaar.

Other features of the bazaar were the play, "A Box of Monkeys," presented by members of the Dramatic Club, and the girls' and boys' basket-ball games. Both teams played their respective alumni—the girls in the afternoon and the boys in the evening. The girls' game was a victory for our team, 43 to 3; the score for the boys' game was 19 to 6 in favor of the alumni.

The bazaar was a complete success, twenty-four hundred dollars being taken in, of which about eighteen hundred was profit. The school is to be congratulated for being able to manage such an extensive affair.

The Corpus Club

THE Corpus Club was formed last September by a number of first year students of the 54th Street Branch with further study of science as its purpose.

Since its inception the club has visited the following places: The Union Stock Yards, November 30, 1920; The Sanitation and Health Show, December 1, 1920; the modern bakery of the Schultz Baking Company, December 28, 1920; and the laboratory of the president of the Microscopic Society of Chicago, January 28, 1921. On February 11, 1921, Dr. Sadler spoke in a very interesting fashion on the subject of health.

Among the social activities this year were several parties and stereoptican lectures by Mr. Furlong, concerning fossils, bacteria, butterflies, and X-rays.

Due to the efforts of the sponsor, Miss Johnston, the Corpus Club, in the short time it has been in existence, has enjoyed remarkable success.

Sergeant Stamper

"The Major," who came to HYDE PARK about a year ago, is just the type of man necessary to bring order out of chaos. He is a real soldier, for he served for seventeen years with the regulars and during the war spent nine months in France.

Although Sergeant Stamper is a stern disciplinarian and would seem to be a hard task master to those few in military training ranks who would cause trouble, the most of the boys know him as a friend. He is always sympathetic and ready to aid everyone, and these two qualities have won him admiration as his military ability has brought him respect. By his efficiency and sincerity he has made a warm spot for himself in the hearts of the boys, some of whom may in time be other "Sergeant Stampers."

Captain Charles J. King

Undoubtedly no man is better fitted to lead our band than Captain King. He has certainly trained for us a wonderful band—two of them in fact: a concert band and a drill band. We are flattered by the fact that this man, who has graduated from one of the leading conservatories of Europe, a man who is qualified, by years of study, for a place in the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, has devoted so much time for Hyde Park's benefit.

The Staff has now convened;
And all assistant editors
Think each editor's a fiend.
Fritze's in the window
Counting out the cash;
H. V. R's about ready
To administer the lash.
Elsa's gesticulating
To pacific Aubrey Starke;
The photography department
Is gazing on the park.
Ed is on the table
Trying to report;
But Helen Hall's "Activities"
Cut his printer's shop-talk short.
Rufus kicks at panelling,
But his good joke starts a roar;
If it weren't for "Humor's" hooting,
He still would have the floor.
Stalwart Paul and Dorothy Dick
Are shouting at each other;
While Jean, and Mary, and Dorothy Kaye,
Make faces at one another.
Connie and Louise are queerly
Trying to get together;
While Betty C. and Esther
Are discussing present weather.
Hamilton's distracted,
Can't even try to think;
Ed Meyer strangely mutters,
"'J'ever see a kitchen sink?"
Dear Helen's voice has disappeared
She's collapsed; nothing learned;
Her weak hand motions slowly;
The meeting is adjourned.

Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1921

THIS is to state, testify, or expound to those who have so long been our friends and victims that we, the undersigned, whereas we cannot pawn or exchange them for better at Woodworth's, do hereby leave in possession of our successors the following valuables, hoping that they will be used in a manner befitting their unusual, and significant past:

Our power to hear, enjoy, and obey Mr. Smith's instructions on etiquette in the building, in the class, and at Amphlett's.

Al Knouff's Discussion Club "pull."

Alice Cockrell's non-buckleable goloshes.

Freddie's Glace Compound "for excitable hair."

Mr. Spurgin's treatise on "Physical Impossibilities and Their Effects."

Helen V. Rothrock's enviable assortment of club pins, track emblems, and other insignia.

Johnnie Poffinberger's new book, "Wiring and Insulation for Dramatics of All Kinds," a handbook on how to ditch successfully.

Janet Thayer's six or seven pairs of Harold Lloyds left around the building at different times.

Rachel James's set of "Hazardous Henna" by Richard Harding Brownfellow.

Whereas, we do hereby, give into the hands of our successors these things acquired legally or otherwise, hoping sincerely that said successors will do with said articles "all that is necessary and proper" for the fulfilling of said obligations to said high school.

Signed and approved this 22nd day of June in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty-one. Anno Domini.

He who has never received a lower grade than S.

He who has never ditched a class.

He who can stand a zero rather than legitimately look at a private vocabulary.

He who can save enough allowance to buy a much needed theme tablet, eraser, or club membership.

He who can look a teacher straight in the eye and say, "I overslept."

ROB STEELE

By Tennyson Shakespeare Longfellow

Once upon a time there wander'd
In the Congo's hottest region,
Robert Steele, a wand'ring vagrant,
Pilgrim on the road to nowhere.
He knew not where he was going,
But ere long he wished he had known,
For he very soon was captured
By the tribe of Eetum Fasta,
Cannibals who had no mercy.
As expected, he was taken
To the chieftain, Eetum Fasta,
And the chief told his two henchmen,
"Take this vagabond and tie him
To the palm treee over yonder."
His command was executed;
Then the chief said to his henchmen,
"Tell this yegg that we shall fry him;
Then come tell me what he sayeth."
This command was executed,
And they came back and reported:
"He says we cannot fry him;
The reason is, today's not Friday;
That day only can one fry things."
Then the chief said to his henchmen,
"Tell this yegg that we will boil him;
Then come tell me what he sayeth."
This command was executed,
And the men returned and told him,
"When we told him we would boil him,
Very fresh he acted to us."
Then the chief said to his henchmen,
"If the yegg was fresh towards you,
Then he should be good for poaching,
For one always can poach fresh yeggs.
Tell the yegg that we shall poach him,
Then come tell me what he sayeth."
This command was executed,
And they came back and they told him,
"He said we cannot poach him,
For he said he would not poach
Upon others' territory,
And this is our territory."
Then the chief said to his henchmen,
"Tell the yegg that we shall broil him,
Then come tell me what he sayeth."
This command was executed;
Soon the men came and informed him,

"He says we cannot broil him,
As he says he is already
In a broil with us three fellows."
Then the chief said, "I am angry;
Tell him we will make hash of him,
Then come tell me what he sayeth."
This command was executed,
And they came back and reported,
"He says we can't make hash of him,
For he says we cannot chop him.
He says his name is Steele and
Once he used to be a copper;
For his health he taketh iron,
And he is a man of mettle.
O chief, tell us, what shall we do?"
Then the chief was very happy;
He said, "Fortune smiles upon us;
If he is a man of mettle,
Go and melt him to a liquid,
And I will have soup for supper."

Results of the H. P. Smoking Contest.

As we go to press, the latest report of the great event is rushed through. The final score in points came out as follows:

Mr. Smith—first place.
Mr. Loomis—second place
Miss Karls—third place

However, all during the contest, the following good plays were noticed:

Miss Stuart's inhale was excellent, really better than Miss Karl's, but in the last few seconds the former weakened visibly.

Mr. Broek was allowed to enter the race only on one condition: that he have a handicap, two stogies before the regular Omar test. This was because of his advantage of extreme youth, and because of his being a professional at the sport.

Misses Hannan and Parker kept up well; the first because of her over-seas experience, and the second because of her natural athletic ability.

Miss Guller was particularly good on the fifty smoke-ring contest, as was also Miss Ohrenstein because of the excellent breath-control gained in their vocal study.

Mr. Hipple did very poorly in both the "Stogie" and "fag" dashes, but made up for it later in the "Velvet Special," where he took all honors. This was due to his mile-smoke on the way to school every morning, in which he uses nothing but a sweet-briar.

Miss Bridge and Miss Jackson, two enterprising beginners, tied in every match. Each went out! (Each match.) They stayed until the very end: determination and grit obtained in the study of Latin!

Miss O'Brien could not become an active participant because she insisted on using her own which were Milo Violets, too mild for a good contest.

The prize was a silver loving cup presented to the winners. This cup was sent by the Anti-Cigarette League to further interest in all forms of tobacco.

A Seniors' Legacy

To whom it may concern: I cheerfully recommend my old girl to any undergraduate young man wanting a suitable dating companion for next year.

She is a good dancer physically and morally.
She is a good looker.
She is a good listener.
She isn't too good.
She is an excellent pedestrian; in fact she will always say that she likes to walk, although she is not prejudiced against a car.
She is a fairly light eater except on Sunday. It is advisable to eat table d'hote on Sunday.
She is a woman of deep emotions whom only you will be able to thrill.
She has, to the best of my knowledge, absolutely no ideas of her own, except you.

My sole and simple reason for quitting her is that I am leaving school. Treat her right. She likes to be treated.

A Moving Story

"Cousin Kate" was "Nineteen and Phyllis" was "Outside the Law" when they went on "Prairie Trails" and "Over the Hill" to see about the "Education of Elizabeth." On the "Road to Ambition" they met "The Kid" who was in "Dangerous Business" because "Bunty Pulled the (wrong) Strings."

On their "Way Down East" they saw "Isobel" who said, " 'Hush!' 'The Ghost's in the Garret'." So they followed the "Mark of Zorro" with their "Hearts Up" until they came to "The Great Lover" who was all lit up with "The Love Light," after the "Great Adventure" of the "Man-Woman Marriage" in which he promised to "Love, Honor ,and Behave."

They saw "Brewster's Millions" of automobiles and said, " 'Hold Your Horses' we don't want them." But after all, this "Passion" was merely "Midsummer Madness."

Not that it was "Mamma's Affair" but she heard "The Whispering Devils" and solved "The Riddle," " 'Woman'," she said, "what's your 'Number Please'?"

What is Zero

Zero (says the slacker) is the unfair blow below the belt given by the teacher who has a grudge.

Zero (says the other student) is the doom which rightfully falls on those who do not work.

Zero (says one kind of prof.) is the mark I give on first impression, and on the fact that the pupil's opinion is not the same as mine.

Zero (says Miss Guller) is the sign-post that leads to the office.

Zero (says Bro. Smith) is the universal grade given in Amphlettics.

People You Can Get Along Without

That "dumbell" who says, "Let's take your Weekly."

The prune who borrows your pencil and forgets it's yours.

The sweet, insipid girlie who says, "Dear me, I've forgotten my fountain pen. Have you one?"

The poor sport who doesn't go to a game because he thinks the team is raw material and laughs if it wins.

The sap who comes to an exam without an eraser.

The patriot who buys a basket-ball ticket and thinks he has done his duty, and doesn't go to the game.

The bird who drops his book when the bell rings and blocks the aisle by leaning over to pick it up.

Duke—The day I pay you!

Either or Neither

She wore a plain blue coat, a dark blue hat, wool stockings, and oxfords. Her nose was not shiny, neither were her cheeks discolored. She carried two books.

The other wore a dolman, a hat of tangerine shade—extreme model—a pair of floppy goloshes, and chiffon stockings. Her nose was not shiny, neither were her cheeks pale. Each lip was a masterpiece. She carried a miniature patent-leather suit-case.

The first looked at the second and said, "Poor orphan; she needs a mother."

The second looked at the first and said the same thing.

First Englishman—Say did you know they are giving away birds with every drink down at the corner?

Second Englishman—No; what kind?

First Englishman—Swallows.

COME ON BACK AND TRY THAT AGAIN AND I'LL GET A LEG SURE
MADE IT AGAIN B'GOSH
DEDICATED TO THE MAN WHO CROSSES THE STREET IN THE MIDDLE OF THE BLOCK
Flemming

Look, look,
B. W. Broek
Is shaking his finger at you;
But he can't resist
Your mischievous twist,
And smilingly frowns at you.
See, see,
Miss G. I. B.
Is looking you straight in the eye;
"Ne'er again will I do it,
'Twas a shame, and I rue it,"
She smiles, and then you sigh.
Sulphuric acid plus KOH;
A class, 312 plus H.N.H.;
Hologens, carbons, and various scratchwork,
Presto—the atoms
Are changed into poems
And we enjoy "Panama Patchwork."

Corridor Quips

One (listening)—Stop—That's pretty, "A Young Man's Fancy."
Another (looking)—I'll say. It's Margaret Viberts!

Harry—How much do you suppose Cooke weighs?
Abe—About 250 lbs. net., Pure Food Laws 1909.

Monitor—Note?
Pupil (in a hurry)—I know it's a note. That's what all the trouble's about!

F. K. (concentratingly)—Young man, do you know what a philosopher is?
Frosh (respectfully)—Yes Sir; I rode mine to school this morning.
F. K. (admiringly)—Correct, my boy, correct!

Orion Says:

How can a fellow ever be
Any good at all if he
Is not supported mightily
By members of the faculty.

He cannot push ahead and win
If all his teachers hold him in
Not even sanctioning his sport
But saying " 'Tis a useless sort."

They wail "Old Hyde Park has no spirit"
Until the farthest clouds could hear it;
Encouragement they give no thought to
They seem to think they "hadn't ought to."

If the Pacific Ocean should evaporate, Japan and the United States would have something to scrap about.

Something else beside relativity to go insane over: Edison's questions knocked one out already.

Close quarters are something we never kick about except when the "auto" ride is a family-only affair.

Say it with flowers! But in the moonlight when you're most tongue-tied, the darn things close.

Dr. Barker's daughter may have been happy at one end of the canoe, with the young man at the other, but she could have been a lot happier.

Trial Lesson! Improve Your Voice

In view of the fact that very few people are able to make themselves heard before an audience, I, Mme. Fusilama of Tokio, hereby give you free one lesson in this course.

If the work is interesting and seems to help you, as it undoubtedly will, send me a stamped, addressed envelope for the second lesson.

Do these exercises faithfully and results will prove well worth the effort:

First exercise: Take a deep breath on the count of one, exhale on the count of two; ready, one—two, one—two, one—two, one—two.

Second exercise: Repeat slowly: hish, hash, hosh!

Third exercise: Repeat as rapidly as possible: bah, bee, bai, boe, boo, boi, bou.

Fourth exercise: Learn by heart one verse of classical poetry such as:

Mary had a little steamboat,
The steamboat had a bell;
Mary went to heaven,
And the steamboat went toot, toot!

Picked Up Around Town

When the English try to talk about second-hand clothes (we don't talk' we wear) they say "left off" instead of our "cast off." This advertisement appeared in a London paper:

"Mr. and Mrs. Hardy have left-off clothing of all kinds. They can be seen any day from two to four P. M."

A preacher advertised for an organist and received this reply:

"Dear Sir: I notice you have a vacancy for an organist and music teacher, either lady or gentleman. Having been both for a number of years, I beg to apply for the position."

Speaking of poverty-striken teachers:

A professor received a bill from his tailor which read, "1 pr. pants—$10."

He wrote back: "Say trousers not pants."

The next day in the mail: "Anything under $12 is pants. It's pants you bought and pants you pay for."
